1 client?

2 MR. CIPPARONE: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Can we bring out the defendant, please?

4 (Defendant present)

09 33AM 5 THE COURT: All right, this is the matter of United 6 States versus Shnewer. Let's have the appearance of counsel.
7 We'll start with the Government, please.

8 MR. HAMMER: Good morning, Your Honor. Michael 9 Hammer and William Fitzpatrick.

09 34AM 10 MR. CIPPARONE: Good morning, Your Honor. Rocco
11 Cipparone on behalf of Mohamad Shnewer.

12 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Cipparone have you and 13 your client had sufficient opportunity to review tell 14 pre-sentence investigation report?

09 34AM 15 MR. CIPPARONE: Yes, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: I know there's a number of Guideline
17 related issues which we will get to immediately. But other 18 than that, do you want to note any other objections for the 19 record.

09 34AM 20 MR. CIPPARONE: I've already noted in the letter to 21 the Probation Department the contest of certain facts, fact 22 determinations. I understand obviously I was present 23 yesterday. I understand the Court's rulings with respect to 24 those. I simply noted them for Your Honor for the record.

09 34AM 25 THE COURT: Yes. Fine. How about the Government.

2 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: All rise.

3 THE COURT: Thank you everyone. Have a seat, please.

4 Good morning everyone.

09 31AM 5 MR. CIPPARONE: Good morning, Your Honor.

6 MR. HAMMER: Good morning, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right. There's some new people here,

8 new faces. I just want to repeat something that I started the 9 proceedings with yesterday, and that is the necessity of

09 32AM 10 maintaining order in the courtroom. For those of who you 11 weren't here yesterday for my announcement, there can be no
12 disruptions or interruptions of the proceedings. I don't see 13 any little children here. Well, some. And I know children 14 make noise. The get bored and we all understand that. But

09 32AM 15 they can't make noise because we can't hear the proceedings if 16 they make a lot of noise so. If you have a child who makes 17 noise, I'd ask you to please take them outside. Anyone who 18 disrupts the proceedings or interrupts the proceedings will be 19 removed from the courtroom and evicted from the court house

09 32AM 20 and will not be permitted to return to this courthouse or this 21 courtroom. The U. S. Marshals have the authority to enforce 22 this order without further direction from me and there will be 23 no further warnings about this. Please, please do not 24 interrupt, shout, make noise.

09 33AM 25 All right. Mr. Cipparone are you ready for your

1 MR. HAMMER: No objections, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. Great. Well, then let's get 3 into it, Mr. Cipparone. You want to place on the record the 4 essence of your Guidelines related objections?

09 34AM 5 MR. CIPPARONE: Yes, Your Honor. And again, having 6 sat through the proceedings yesterday, I'm mindful of the fact 7 that three very able lawyers yesterday presented essentially 8 the same arguments that I presented to the court and to the 9 Probation Department with respect to guideline objections.

09 35AM 10 Some I'll list them. I'll be brief.

11 THE COURT: Well.

12 MR. CIPPARONE: In terms of the positions
13 understanding your rulings from yesterday.

14 THE COURT: And you briefed them also.

09 35AM 15 MR. CIPPARONE: I have briefed them. In a sentencing 16 submission to Your Honor as well. The first obviously relates 17 to the official victim enhancement under Section 3(a)1.2 of 18 the Guidelines. I submitted to the court that the six level 19 enhancement under that section of the Guidelines should not be 20 applied to Mr. Shnewer. The only and application of the 21 arguments made yesterday that I'd like to make is a little bit 22 of a different spin in addition to incorporating those 23 arguments of cocounsel yesterday. One additional position I 24 take is that the guideline does not define the term victim as 09 35AM 25 it is used therein. And if we look to, for guidance to the

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 other Federal provisions in which the term victim is defined,
 2 I think the Court should follow the kind of long-standing
 3 tradition of how the term victim has been interpreted. Both 4 under Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32. Also under the 5 mandatory restitution provisions of Title 18, the term victim
 6 essentially is defined as an individual who has suffered a 7 direct or proximate harm as a result of the crimes of 8 conviction. Here because the two crimes of which Mr. Shnewer 9 has been convicted by the jury are they are inchoate crimes.
 09 36AM 10 There has been no direct proximate cause established with 11 respect to individual victims of any harm suffered by any 12 individual victims. I'd submit that the facts of this case do 13 not fit the definition of victim as it traditionally has been 14 applied in the Federal statutes, which is the same definition
 09 36AM 15 I would urge the Court to apply to the official victim 16 enhancement in the definition of the term victim in that 17 section of the Guidelines. I've obviously briefed this 18 somewhat extensively and unless the court has questions on 19 that point, I'm content to rely on the brief on that issue as 09 37AM 20 well.

21 THE COURT: No, I don't have any questions. Actually 22 it was an excellent brief. It's a great point you make, but 23 the problem is you undoubtedly recognize there's no case law
 24 that supports you. In fact case law supports the government 09 37AM 25 in the Polk case.

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

6

1 MR. CIPPARONE: I do, the one thing I would say about 2 the Polk case Your Honor, and I'm going to make an attempt 3 here to distinguish, I'm simply going to say that the Fifth 4 Circuit got it wrong in Polk. The Third Circuit hasn't 09 37AM 5 addressed it nor has the U. S. Supreme Court and, therefore, 6 Your Honor, is free to accept an alternative position from 7 that of the Fifth Circuit in Polk and I had urge the Court to 8 do that.

9 THE COURT: No, I know, I know I have that ability to 09 37AM 10 do that. But I don't think I will. I do agree with Polk. I 11 think the guideline application note number one which says
 12 this guideline applies when specified individuals are victims
 13 of the offense. This guideline does not apply when the only 14 victim is an organization, agency or the Government. I don't 09 38AM 15 think that forecloses the six level enhancement just because 16 no specific person was identified in this case as a victim. I 17 think that's what the Polk court recognized. And I think the 18 second sentence, the victim is an organization, agency or the 19 Government is more directed at, for instance, an anarchist
 09 38AM 20 whose only desire is to cause damage to a government to bring 21 down a complete government, not to kill specific individuals.
 22 And there are other instances throughout our history of 23 anarchists planting bombs on Wall Street and things like that.
 24 I think that's what that is more directed to than this 09 39AM 25 instance where there are victims, specified victims but not by

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 name. The victims are the United States military personnel 2 and they are victims only because of their status and their 3 targeted only because of their status.

4 So for all of those reasons, I'm going to affirm the 09 38AM 5 finding of the Probation Department as the six level increase 6 for official victim.

7 MR. CIPPARONE: The next guideline objection, Your 8 Honor, relates to the terrorism enhancement under Section 9 3(a)1.4 of the Guidelines. Again I incorporate by reference 09 39AM 10 the arguments made at sentencing yesterday by counsel for the 11 three Duka defendants. Incorporate by reference the arguments 12 set forth in my brief. And I'd ask the court to not apply the 13 terrorism enhancement to this particular case. There's a 14 little bit of an overlap between this and a downward departure 09 39AM 15 slash variance request I've made of the court with respect to 16 how that terrorism enhancement affects the criminal history 17 category. I can argue that now. I can do it in conjunction 18 with the motion. I don't know how the court prefers to 19 proceed.

09 39AM 20 THE COURT: Well, if you want to do it now, that's 21 fine.

22 MR. CIPPARONE: I can do it now. Obviously there's a 23 jump of 12 levels in the offense level as a result of 24 terrorism enhancement. But there's also a corresponding jump 09 39AM 25 from a -- in Mr. Shnewer's case criminal history category one

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

8

1 was zero criminal history point to a criminal history category
 2 six, which traditionally or typically is reserved for the most 3 severe recidivist in our system.

4 THE COURT: Correct. Career criminal. Armed career
 09 40AM 5 criminal.

6 MR. CIPPARONE: There is obviously an expressed
 7 provision in the Guidelines that provides for a downward
 8 departure in the event that the criminal history category
 9 over-represents the defendant's prior criminal history. And I
 09 40AM 10 argue this both as a motion for departure but also a variance 11 in conjunction with the other 3553 factors that I will discuss 12 shortly. And respectfully if ever there was a case where the 13 criminal history category over-represents a defendant's prior 14 criminal conduct, it has to be Mr. Shnewer's. He has --

09 40AM 15 THE COURT: Well, I don't know that he's unique. I 16 mean it's just a very strange provision to bump it from 17 whatever it is to a six. And it really doesn't care where it 18 starts. It can be a 1, 2, 3, 4, 5. Whoever is it it's going 19 to be a six.

09 41AM 20 MR. CIPPARONE: Right.

21 THE COURT: It's unprecedented.

22 MR. CIPPARONE: I really struggled with the rational 23 basis for that zero, almost zero to 60, but I have to say zero
 24 to six, you know, acceleration. Mr. Shnewer as Your Honor 09 41AM 25 knows from the presentence report has not even a single arrest

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 in his background. Not even a single -- and he was a taxi 2 driver, not even a single motor vehicle violation that's 3 reflected in the pre-sentence report. So, he truly is a 4 Category one, zero points person with no prior contact with 5 the criminal justice system. So the rationality of a leap 6 from one to six can only be based in my interpretation or 7 understanding of the Guidelines on this concept that once a 8 terrorist, always a terrorist. The problem with that I guess 9 from the individualized perspective is if we simply accept 09 41AM 10 that as a basis for never deviating from Congress's policy 11 determination that once a terrorist always a terrorist it 12 removes the individualized aspects of sentencing that apply 13 and should apply to any defendant standing here before a court 14 facing up to or more than in this case the rest of his life in 09 42AM 15 jail. And if we, you know, just broad brush accept that 16 policy reason as a reason not to deviate from the criminal 17 history category six or from the offense level adjustment for 18 that matter, we really remove any consideration of the 19 individual characteristics regarding Mr. Shnewer.
 09 42AM 20 I heard Your Honor say and I agree, that I've never as 21 well seen a level 51 which is a level applicable to Mr.
 22 Shnewer in the strict application of the Guidelines in another
 23 case. But while that reflects a seriousness of the offense
 24 and I don't dispute the seriousness of the offense and I don't 09 42AM 25 think Mr. Shnewer will when you hear him speak as well. It

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 at that point. This is such a strong policy statement under 2 this guideline that I'm not going to apply and I'm not going 3 to grant your variance request or a downward departure request 4 an over-representation. And having said all that, obviously 09 44AM 5 you recognize that under 3553, I have great flexibility to 6 fashion a sentence and I mean obviously one factor in all 7 this, and we'll get to those factors eventually, is that he 8 has never been arrested before unlike some of the other 9 defendants in this case. So, you know, that will be taken
 09 45AM 10 into account. I'm not sure it makes a huge bit of difference 11 in the case but it will be taken into account.
 12 MR. CIPPARONE: I understand. Beyond that, those 13 were the only guideline related objections. I don't know if 14 Your Honor wants to proceed to the 3553 factors.
 09 45AM 15 THE COURT: No. I want to hear from the government 16 on their recommendation and their analysis of 3553 factors and 17 then you have some people who are going to speak.
 18 MR. CIPPARONE: I do.
 19 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Hammer.
 09 45AM 20 MR. HAMMER: Thank you, Your Honor. Your Honor, as 21 we briefed to the court, the government's position is that a 22 life sentence of, sentence of life imprisonment plus the 23 30 years for the defendant's 924(c) count is a necessary and 24 appropriate sentence in this matter. I think that the 09 46AM 25 evidence at trial proved overwhelmingly that this defendant

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

 1 doesn't allow for the court to consider all of the factors I'm 2 going to discuss in a moment about his background, the kind of 3 person he is and what his family members will tell you, and 4 frankly what he'll tell you in few moments. So I'd ask the 09 43AM 5 court to consider that, to consider that, you know leap frog
 6 effect from a Category one to a Category 6 and grant a 7 downward departure or in the alternative if the court declines 8 that, consider that factor along with the other 3553 factors
 9 that I'll address and the variance.
 09 43AM 10 THE COURT: Well, there's no question the policy
 11 behind this is to punish this particular crime. This 12 particular set of circumstances as severely as possible.
 13 Whether that's a good policy or not is not up to me and that 14 is the policy behind this, and they do it two ways by 09 43AM 15 including, by increasing the offense level, but I think the 16 increase of the criminal history category is equally 17 important. And that ensures it's the maximum sentence under 18 the Guidelines possible. So, you know the way I've always 19 interpreted the over-representation variance is a defendant 09 44AM 20 who committed a couple of crimes 20 years previously and 21 because of that gets a high criminal history score and has led 22 a law-abiding life in intervening years unless he stands 23 before the Court again. And there it's permitting us as 24 judges to make the determination that he really isn't a career
 09 44AM 25 criminal and that he shouldn't be treated as a career criminal

*United States District Court

12
 1 Mohamad Shnewer was at the epicenter of the conspiracy. In 2 fact, the court may recall the testimony of the Government's 3 terrorism expert, Evan Kohlmann who testified that the new 4 model for Al Qaeda was essentially decentralization and trying 09 46AM 5 to foster home grown terrorism through tools such as the 6 internet and the videos that Al Qaeda puts out over the 7 internet. And I submit the evidence showed overwhelming that 8 Mohamad Shnewer embodied that. And that's that proven in 9 several different ways. First, Mohamad Shnewer was fully 09 46AM 10 radicalized well before this investigation ever began. That 11 was proven by the videos that he had on his computer from at 12 least 2005. Videos such 19 also known as the will of Abdulah
 13 Aziz Alumar which was the last testament of one of the 19
 14 highjackers from 9/11 and urges people like Mohamad Shnewer 09 47AM 15 that it is their duty to engage in Jihad. VPS 01-1. And 16 statement of the Uma, destruction of the USS Cole, and the 17 London expedition and Batar Bagdad as well as a number of 18 videos depicting bombings and violence against U.S. soldiers.
 19 Those are videos that Mohamad Shnewer had on his computer well
 09 47AM 20 before the investigation began. Mohamad Shnewer's commitment 21 to martyrdom and the cause of Jihad is evident as well from 22 time and time again his own statements throughout the 23 investigation. He made it clear repeatedly his outright 24 adoration of Usama Laden and Abu Mus'ab al-Zarqawi and the 09 48AM 25 9/11 highjackers. In fact, on August 4th and 5th when Mahmoud

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 Omar voices skepticism about doing an attack. Mohamad Shnewer 2 uses Usama Bin Ladin and the 19 brothers as he puts them who 3 changed the whole world. Changed the face of this earth. And 4 he says that's our model. Those are the people that we need
5 to follow. And he says as well on August 11, 2006, the day
6 that they go surveil Fort Dix. If you are able to bear arms, 7 you must be on the battle field. You must, you must, there is 8 no doubt about it. There is no doubt about it. It's clear.
9 And, Your Honor, the record reflects instance after instance 10 after instance, where Mohamad Shnewer talks about their 11 obligation to follow in the path of the Mujahideen and Usama 12 bin Laden and engage in the Jihad. It would be hard to 13 overstate list involvement in the actual planning of the 14 attack that was at the core of this conspiracy.

09 45AM 15 On August 1st he's the first one to propose Fort Dix.
16 And Mr. Cipparone tried mightily. He's a fine lawyer. He 17 tried a fine case. He tried mightily to make it appear that 18 that was in response to something Omar had suggested that 19 Shnewer was saying that's something you could do. But I think 09 45AM 20 that that is completely disproven again with Mohamad Shnewer's 21 own words when he says especially if someone speaks their 22 language like me. And he says he's been thinking about it for 23 a long time because he knows that Serdar Tatar knows that 24 place. And he tells Omar later on August 13th in the context 09 45AM 25 of telling Omar about how long Dritan Duka was attempting to

*United States District Court

14

1 acquire AK47's says because quote: We want it to hit them in 2 Cape May. The Navy. That's going back to 2005. And Shnewer
3 tells Omar as well on August 1st how he wanted to assassinate 4 the president and as he calls it, the Black House. And he 09 50AM 5 tells Omar on August 1st it's his dream to return to Palestine 6 to kill Jews. He's the one in consultation, after 7 consultation with Eljvir Duka who proposes the idea of killing 8 as many as three hundred U.S. soldiers at one time by shooting 9 down an airplane that's departing with soldiers to the Middle 09 50AM 10 East. And when Dover Air Force Base proves to be too 11 difficult a target, he's the one who comes up with the idea of 12 using the gas tanker truck as a vehicle born explosive device 13 and volunteers himself to drive because unlike the Dukas, he 14 can get a commercial driver's license. And again on September
09 50AM 15 19, 2006 it's his idea himself after consultation with Eljvir 16 Duka to attack the National Guard Armory in Cherry Hill.
17 Attack defenseless guardsmen who are there, kill them, and get 18 as many weapons they can as preparation for a larger attack.
19 And as well it's Mohamad Shnewer's idea to in early 2007 to 09 51AM 20 attack during the Army Navy football game. There's going to 21 be a lot of people in as Shnewer describes it and they inflict 22 a lot of casualties at once. Those are all his ideas. In 23 consultation with Eljvir Duka. And I'd submit, Your Honor, 24 that's not the end of it in terms of planning the attack and 09 51AM 25 his involvement. It's also important to consider his raw zeal

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 in doing that. In planning that. The court will remember 2 during August 11th the surveillance of Fort Dix, both from the 3 video, the audio and the transcript. Mohamad Shnewer's
4 reaction when they come across a column of Humvees and Shnewer 09 52AM 5 says, expletive. That's what we want. Allah is great. Of my 6 dear, this is an area. This is it. This is it. You know how 7 much my heat, I mean has opened up when I saw this area. This 8 is it, Mahmoud. This is their camp. You see when they are 9 entering. And if someone is. He then goes on to talk about 09 52AM 10 the virtue of dying as a martyr. And after talking about 11 that, he returns to the idea of attacking the Humvee column 12 and he says, this is the area we're looking for. You hit 4 or 13 5 Humvees, six. Light the whole place up an retreat, I mean 14 completely. Without any casualties.

09 52AM 15 August 13th and 14th, Mohamad Shnewer says keep tight, 16 this is not a problem, this is not a problem. They might be 17 from the Army. They are the same ones in whose heads we're 18 going to put bullets, God willing. What occasioned -- all the 19 talk during the trial about Mahmoud Omar instigating and even 09 52AM 20 at the sentencing, cooperators instigated, what occasioned 21 Shnewer to make that remark? Nothing more than Omar 22 complaining about somebody tailgating him. It's evident from 23 the record, it's overwhelming that defendant Shnewer needed no 24 prompting or prodding to talk about joining and to actually 09 53AM 25 join in that conspiracy to slaughter American soldiers.

*United States District Court

16

1 And as well, his zeal for acquire weapons. Throughout 2 March and April 2007 Mohamad Shnewer repeatedly pursues Omar
3 about getting weapons. In fact, he does it going all the way
4 back to August 2006 when he tells Omar the most important 09 53AM 5 thing for me Mahmoud for this attack, is your ability to get 6 us weapons. He offers to come over at any time day or night 7 to pay the Baltimore contact. He tells Omar to have the 8 contact get the four, meaning the AK 47s. He says I know what 9 it is, I've already shot it. At least two other occasions he 09 54AM 10 reiterates he'll take the weapons and pay for them at any 11 point. In fact, in late December Omar proposes to Shnewer 12 should we cancel Baltimore until after the Poconos? And 13 Shnewer says no, I've already got the money, the $2,000, he's 14 read to buy them now. Shnewer offers to make a safe house at 09 54AM 15 his -- to make -- to have a safe at his house to store the 16 weapons. He offers that he could store them like the 17 underground safe he had at the other house.
18 And then there's the talk about on several occasions
19 wherein Shnewer makes it clear he doesn't merely want an AK 09 54AM 20 47, he wants RPGs or missiles. He doesn't raise it once or 21 twice, he raises it several times. He tells Omar, you know, 22 I'm thinking of getting a one, meaning the RPG or the Duschka.
23 And this is the same individual who specifically obtained 24 videos that provided instruction on how to make improvised 09 55AM 25 explosive devices specifically in conjunction with doing the

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 attack. I don't think there can be any doubt that Mohamad
2 Shnewer stood at the very epicenter of this conspiracy.
3 And I expect, your Honor, that we're going to hear from 4 some of Mr. Shnewer's family today about his characteristics.
5 And I saw from some of the letters that he's hard working.
6 And I agree with some of the comments that your Honor made 7 yesterday regarding the other defendant's family members, it's 8 sad, it's tragic. But there's two other points that come out 9 of that.

09 55AM 10 The first one, Mohamad Shnewer, the record showed, 11 repeatedly lied to them about what he was doing. He concealed 12 from them what he was doing. He does it, for example, on 13 August 11th when he actually parks his car at the Barclay
14 Tower apartments and takes Omar's car so that his family 09 56AM 15 wouldn't know where he was and he lies to his mom about where 16 he is. He does the same thing on August 13th when they're 17 surveilling Dover, he tells his father that he's having a 18 conversation with his friend Zaid and he'll be home later. He 19 lies to sister Inas Shnewer telling her that he's at the drive
09 56AM 20 through of a bank. Clearly he routinely deceived them about 21 what he was doing.

22 One other example, also on the night of August 13th and 23 14th, when Mohamad Shnewer's proposing that he'll go to the 24 driving school to learn how to drive a tractor trailer as part 09 56AM 25 of the VBED attack, he says I'll tell my parents I'm going to

*United States District Court

1 this case that's appropriate, life in prison.
2 I have nothing else, unless your Honor has any 3 questions.
4 THE COURT: No questions. Just an observation that 09 58AM 5 he's certainly not the first son to have misled his mother
6 about his whereabouts. I understand why you made the point 7 but that's not a big deal in this case --

8 MR. HAMMER: Okay.
9 THE COURT: -- in the grand scheme of what he's 09 59AM 10 charged with.

11 Thank you.
12 MR. HAMMER: Thank you.
13 THE COURT: Mr. Cipparone?
14 MR. CIPPARONE: Would you like to hear from the 09 59AM 15 speakers at this point?

16 THE COURT: Whenever you'd like to put them on.
17 MR. CIPPARONE: If I can do that, and then I'll -- 18 THE COURT: Sure.

19 MR. CIPPARONE: His mother, Faten, F-A-T-E-N, Shnewer
09 59AM 20 wanted to address the Court.

21 THE COURT: Ma'am, over here. Rocco, will you tell 22 her to go over there? She needs to go over where the 23 microphone is.

24 Tell us your name, please.

09 59AM 25 MRS. F. SHNEWER: My name is Faten Shnewer, I'm 1 university so they won't know, and he tells Omar because they 2 suspect something. But I think that Shnewer tried very hard 3 to conceal this Jihadist fervor of his and the bloodlust he 4 had to kill men and women of the U.S. military as hard as he 09 57AM 5 could from his family.

6 The other part of this, which is tragic and, frankly, I
7 think still difficult to completely comprehend, this is not a 8 defendant who stands before the Court having suffered from 9 extremely difficult economic circumstances or a troubled home 09 57AM 10 life. Clearly he has a very supportive family. And he's had 11 opportunity here. As the presentence investigation report 12 noted, his family came here from the Middle East to get a 13 degree of security and freedom here that they couldn't get 14 there. Mohamad Shnewer got a full education. He had four 09 58AM 15 semesters of community college. Clearly he is a hard worker.
16 I think even before the PSR came out, that was clear. He 17 still found time, though, to do all of these things related to 18 the attack, but he was a hard worker, he had jobs, he had 19 employment opportunities. Yet he was more than willing to 09 58AM 20 forsake all of that in pursuit of this attack, in pursuit of 21 following in the footsteps of his idols Usama bin Laden and 22 Sheik Ayman al-Zawahiri and Zarquwi in committing this attack
23 and pursuing martyrdom. That to me, your Honor, speaks a 24 degree of fervor, a sense of that obligation we talked about 09 58AM 25 yesterday to commit Jihad, that makes the only sentence in

1 Mohamad Shnewer mom.
2 THE COURT: Could you do me a favor, I know you're 3 very nervous, would you keep your voice up? I'm having 4 difficulty hearing you. Maybe we can raise that microphone a 10 00AM 5 little bit.

6 MRS. F. SHNEWER: I'm Mohamad mom. My name Faten
7 Shnewer, I'm here to tell you about my son.

8 Like, it's very hard for me to stand here. I wouldn't, 9 you know, imagine me standing here with all these people.
10 00AM 10 It's not easy for me. And I will just talk about my son.

11 When we first came here to United States, we came, 12 like, in July '87, he was two years old, Mohamad, and belief
13 me I raised him so good. Since he young, he always very nice.
14 He didn't give me hard time. He always sharing. He loved the 10 01AM 15 people. You know, follow direction. You know, like, he only 16 one with me when I came to the United States. And after three 17 years, I have my daughter Inas, and he always, like, with 18 Inas, like, friend, he liked her so much. And when we have 19 friend, they all come over and they have kids his age, give 10 01AM 20 them his toys, give them everything, always play with the 21 other kids. Even with the neighbor he always very good with 22 the neighbor.

23 And he lives with my five daughter and he only brother.
24 And, you know, like, this just -- you know, I have five girls 10 01AM 25 and he's the only one. I have it -- I have three boys before

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 him, two passed away. And after Inas, I have one and he 2 passed away. And when he have a brother, he very happy. And 3 when he die, he sick, like, for maybe a week because he can't 4 wait to see his brother and play with him, because always he 5 like to play with boys and he only have his sister.

6 And, you know, even when I'm home, he always help me 7 with the clean the house. I take him to anywhere, he always 8 quiet and sit. And, you know, I'm always look for him when 9 he's go, I can't wait to see him back. And, like, my dream to 10 see him finish college and be something good. And he always, 11 you know, like, help for me and for his sister. He take his 12 sister to the movie, to the mall, give the money, work hard.
13 Spent the whole time working.

14 He start work at age 17 years even when he in high 15 school. After the high school, you know, he went and he, you 16 know, work in supermarket. And then after supermarket, even 17 when he in college, he work in restaurant. And, you know, 18 like, all the people there work with him, they call him, 19 believe me. The manager there, and his name Fakie, and he 20 called me one day and he told me I want to thank you for how 21 you raise Mohamad, he always -- he's not prejudiced, he's 22 helper, you know, like, he help all the people work with him.

23 And he always smile. He never fight with nobody. Even 24 the school, and the teacher, his teacher he's Jewish, and he 25 been friends to the teacher. He went with the teacher, his 1 teacher to the mall to the movies, he always enjoy the time.

2 He's not prejudiced, not hating. I don't know what -- why,
3 you know, Mohamad put this word in his -- give -- you know,
4 make him feel like this because I never hear Mohamad hate 5 nobody.

6 And when we came back 12 or 13 years, we go back to my 7 country. We spent from '87 to 2000, me and my daughter and 8 Mohamad, we went back to my county to visit two months. And 9 Mohamad, when he was there in Jordan, he don't like. He said, 10 no, I like United States. I like America. He not feel 11 comfortable, he cry, he tell me, please, mama, let's go back.
12 When we come back here, you know, after three years, in 2003, 13 I go visit my family there and I ask him to come with me. He 14 said, no, mama, I want to stay here. I don't like there. I 15 hate there. I like here. He like here. He's busy.

16 He like all kind of people. He's not prejudice. He, 17 you know, like, help the family and the neighbor. And even 18 when I opened the store, he helped me a lot. And even -- I 19 have, you know, like, next door the pizzeria, he ask her if 20 she need any help, help her for free. And, you know, like, 21 always he told his sister be good in the school, don't be 22 prejudiced. You know, like, be with all the people. You 23 know, like, when he worked in the cab, he helped his father.
24 He spent like one hour, two hours spoke with me on the phone, 25 always, you know, he call me.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 But when we have the store, when Mahmoud Omar came to 2 him, I don't know what make him change, you know, like, think.
3 I don't like what he say, but I never hear from my son he say 4 that. He not kill nobody. He don't like to kill nobody. If 5 he see blood, he cry. Like Mahmoud Omar, he come to me, he 6 said your son is foolish. He's stupid. He's like baby. He 7 want to just eat and be with you or work. He's not kind of 8 boy he like to, you know, hang out with girl or to go to 9 nightclub or drink or he just straight. And I told my son, I 10 don't want you to be with him. Because he came to my store
11 and he told me I take drugs, I'm a criminal. He assault 12 everybody. He's a criminal. I told my son keep away from 13 him. And he say, I know, mom.

14 He want to be good. You know, like, he want to be 15 good. He want to leave the drugs. He want to marry. You 16 know, like, I think then his mind. But Mohamad he said, you 17 know, something -- he never say it but he don't mean it, 18 believe me. He just talk and he will never hurt nobody. I 19 know my son. You know, like, in his age maybe sometime, like 20 what he said, maybe he lie to his mom but he don't want to 21 make me angry. But he never lie. In the whole life he never 22 lie to me. But, you know, I think he know he do something not 23 good I will not respect this. But he know, I know my son, he 24 will never hurt nobody. Believe me. When he see my neighbor, 25 you know, scream she needs something, he go to her right away.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

24

1 You know, like, I'm sorry, because my English, I can't 2 explain a lot of thing. But Mohamad, he work hard and he been 3 good son to me and for his grandmother, grandfather, he always 4 help them. He always give hand for anybody that need help.
5 He good to his sister. And this is the only son I have,
6 believe me. And I spent my life just to raise Mohamad to not 7 hate nobody, to like all kind of people.

8 That's why we came here. You know, like, you know, our 9 situation, you know, in my country, you know, like, for me, 10 I'm Palestinian and Jordanian and my husband, he's 11 Palestinian. He can't live in Jordan with me or I can't go 12 and live with him in Palestine, that's why we came here, for a 13 better life, for my kids for have good education. I raise my 14 kids goods. Here, like, since '87, like, almost 20 years, me 15 and my husband and my daughter, even my son, we never had no 16 problem, no fight with nobody. Not even -- you know, I went 17 to supermarket, you know, the people look at me because my 18 clothes, they give me dirty look. And I just smile any say, 19 okay, they don't like my clothes, it's okay. I am proud to be 20 a Muslim and I'm proud of my clothes, I like it.

21 And Islam is the peace. It teach me how to respect a 22 lot of people. You know, maybe sometimes you get angry when, 23 you know, you see your son, he's in the jail, you know, maybe 24 sometime you scream, you know, you make, you know, like you 25 angry, but still my heart clean. I love all the people. I

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 love here in the United States. And I like to be -- like, I
2 am American and I'm proud to be American. And I need to stand
3 American, too, make American stand. I like to help. I like 4 to see this country, big country and justice. I'm sorry, I 5 can't. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. I know how difficult this 7 must be.

8 MR. CIPPARONE: I don't have any questions, your 9 Honor.

10 10 05AM THE COURT: I assume the government has no questions.

11 MR. HAMMER: No, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Anyone else?

13 MR. CIPPARONE: I would like to have his sister Inas 14 Shnewer address the court.

15 10 05AM THE COURT: Ms. Shnewer, please.

16 Tell us your name, please.

17 MS. I. SHNEWER: Inas Shnewer, I'm the sister of 18 Mohamad Shnewer.

19 THE COURT: How old are you?

20 10 10AM MS. I. SHNEWER: I'm 20. And I'm currently in 21 Rutgers University and this my sophomore year.

22 And I just wanted to say what kind of person my brother
23 Mohamad is. Ever since I was born. The only person that I
24 saw was Mohamad. I've been raised with him. And I'm sorry 25 that you didn't get to see another part of Mohamad. The only

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

26

1 part that you saw was the recordings with him and the 2 informant, so I would like to tell you the other part of my 3 brother.

4 He's a very generous and kind young man. He loves to 5 10 10AM have fun. He's a loving person. He loves to see everyone 6 laughing. He's always smiling. He loves his family. He 7 loves everyone. He never distinguished between white, black,
8 Jewish or anything else. And it's just sad to see him today 9 here. And I'm -- we are all sure that he is innocent and that 10 10 11AM you guys didn't get to see the different part of my brother.

11 And it's just sad seeing, you know, a 16 year old -- a 12 guy that's 16 years older than my brother trying to feed him
13 with bad information. Even though my brother did say some bad 14 things, I'm not going to shy away from that, but he always

15 10 11AM told us good things about people, about Americans about Jewish 16 people. He's a loving young man. And he always told me and 17 my sisters to be loving to everyone. And he taught us a lot.

18 My brother even, for instance, one time my neighbor 19 came screaming at my brother for an odd reason and then my 20 10 11AM brother just hid away from her. So the neighbor went up to my 21 mom and said how did you raise your son? I mean, I cursed at 22 him and I told him bad things and he didn't even look at me, 23 he just ran away and he's very kind of polite. It's odd to 24 see a young man like him not scream and not answer us back.

25 10 12AM I just have to tell my brother to be patient and

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 strong. And you know you're innocent, you have nothing to shy
2 away from. And that's all.

3 THE COURT: Did you want to ask any questions?

4 MR. CIPPARONE: Just one, your Honor.

5 10 12AM THE COURT: Sure.

6 MR. CIPPARONE: Inas, I told you, and you're aware 7 obviously, that Mohamad is facing a sentence of potentially 8 life plus an additional 30 years and I've asked the Court in 9 my sentencing memorandum to sentence him to 35 years. Knowing 10 10 12AM Mohamad as you do, can you tell the Court why, if Mohamad was 11 to serve 35 years, and that's without parole, in jail, you 12 think he's not likely to commit a crime or harm anyone and got 13 out and had some life left after 35 years in jail.

14 MS. I. SHNEWER: Because before my brother was in 15 10 13AM prison, as you said earlier, he never had any credible
16 records. My brother, as I said, the only recordings that you 17 heard was with Mahmoud Omar, him stating some bad things. But 18 if my brother were to come out of jail after 35 years, I don't 19 think he would be stupid enough to hang out with people, with 20 10 13AM criminals like Mahmoud Omar.

21 And knowing that my brother, how my brother's generous 22 and kind and likes all kinds of people, him coming out of jail 23 after 35 years would let him accomplish the goals that he had 24 originally set up for himself, which is finishing college, 25 10 13AM being something that he always wanted to be, either a

1 businessman or he wanted to finish marketing. He can get 2 married, which he really wanted to do the summer that he was 3 arrested. That's what his plan was that summer, to get 4 married and have kids and live a life like all of us, like a 5 10 14AM normal person would want.

6 MR. CIPPARONE: Thank you. I have nothing further,
7 your Honor.

8 THE COURT: You don't have any questions, do you?

9 MR. HAMMER: No, your Honor.

10 10 14AM THE COURT: Thank you.

11 MS. I. SHNEWER: You're welcome.

12 MR. CIPPARONE: I hasn't planned this, but his 13 younger sister Lamese did ask me if she could speak. And if 14 that's okay with the Court --

15 10 14AM THE COURT: Sure.

16 MR. CIPPARONE: -- I would like to have her speak and 17 then I'll have one more speaker after her.

18 THE COURT: Certainly. Good morning, Ms. Shnewer.
19 Would you tell us your full name, please?

20 10 14AM MS. L. SHNEWER: Good morning. Lamese Shnewer, 21 sister of Mohamad Shnewer. I'm 14.

22 Mohamad is my only brother. Since I was born, I was 23 growing up with him.

24 (Brief Pause.)

25 10 15AM THE COURT: Take your time. There's no rush here.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 Take your time.

2 MS. L. SHNEWER: I've grown up with my other sisters 3 and --

4 (Brief Pause.)

5 MS. L. SHNEWER: -- my brother never was known as a 6 criminal. When I was growing up with him, my brother was 7 known as a loving person. A person that would love people. A 8 person who always would help people. He loved helping people.
9 He donated money to every -- to the poor. And he always 10 taught me to be a good person to everybody. He never taught 11 me to hate or be racist to anybody. He always told me -- he 12 always told me something right. I looked up to him.

13 Me and him were very close. We used to spend time in 14 the store that we own. And one time me and him were sitting 15 in the store, this guy came and asked my brother for money and 16 my brother gave him money and food. And he told me him I'm 17 here for you, the store's open for you any time, you can come.

18 My brother never thought of hating anybody. My brother 19 was never known as a criminal until you guys sent a criminal 20 to him to try putting words in his mouth and try playing with 21 his head. My brother never thought of that. My brother never 22 thought of killing anybody. My brother never killed a fly or 23 kill anybody. If my brother was a criminal, a soldier came 24 with Joseph DeStefano to our house, we opened the house to 25 him, he used to tell my brother about killing people in Iraq.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

30

1 My brother told him instead of killing, why don't you go help?
2 Why do you like seeing blood? My brother was nice to him. My 3 brother was nice to everybody. My brother never thought of 4 anything like that.

5 THE COURT: Mr. Cipparone, perhaps you have a 6 question.

7 MR. CIPPARONE: I have no questions, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. The government, I assume, has no
9 questions.

10 MR. HAMMER: No, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 MS. L. SHNEWER: Thank you.

13 MR. CIPPARONE: Finally one more speaker, Salem
14 Elkholy.

15 THE COURT: Good morning, sir. Would you state your 16 name, please?

17 MR. ELKHOLY: Good morning. My name is Salem
18 Elkholy, I teach at Burlington County College, I teach Arabic 19 and I teach French. I have a very close relationship with 20 Mohamad and his family, my family and myself. I've known 21 Mohamad for many years. I known him when he was a student at 22 Cherry Hill West, I used to be a substitute teacher there at 23 the time. He was very liked by his teachers and praised by 24 his classmates.

25 We visited them at home on many occasions. He was very

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 kind and generous. Honest. At the school he follows
2 directions. Very trustable person. Dependable. And I'm 3 shocked of what I heard. His family is very honest people.

4 I have many occasion that he came to my house many 5 times to help me fixing things. For example, I have a problem 6 with my stove and a couple things, he came over and he 7 suggested things. He always offer help and help people he 8 knows and people he doesn't know. And my kids, I have three 9 boys, they liked him very much. They always asked they want 10 to go to Mohamad so they can play with him, he knows how to 11 keep them calm, to keep them busy.

12 I never sense or notice anything that Mohamad would do 13 of what I heard from the evidence that was presented. Mohamad 14 is always honest and decent young man. He was planning to get 15 married and establish a family. I asked him many times how he 16 was doing in college, he said he quit college to help his 17 father financially. And he was very devoted to his family and 18 I'm --

19 You know, I can assure your Honor, the Court, that 20 Mohamad is full of productivity. After he finish his 21 sentence, he will be a good member in society. He will do his 22 best to help others. And I hope he can fulfill whatever he 23 wanted to do or he planned to do. You know, I know him very 24 well and I never heard anything bad from him all the years
25 that I've known him, he and his family.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

32

1 MR. CIPPARONE: I have no questions, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: The government have a question?

3 MR. HAMMER: No, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Sir, thank you very much.

5 Mr. Cipparone.

6 MR. CIPPARONE: Thank you, your Honor.

7 I'll address the 3553 factors to the Court. Obviously, 8 the nature and circumstances of the offense are substantial.
9 They're troublesome. They're disconcerting. And I get that.

10 And I heard Mr. Hammer, you know, recite some of the terrible 11 things that we all heard Mr. Shnewer say during the trial, and 12 I don't want to get drawn into that fight, I didn't bring 13 enough binders, I'm sure everyone will be able to appreciate 14 that.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 MR. CIPPARONE: And he said those things there is no
17 getting around, it's a terrible offense, terrible words, 18 terrible potential consequences and I'm not going to argue 19 differently than that.

20 And that's a factor that the Court I'm sure will 21 weigh very heavily in the sentencing process but it's one of 22 many. And even at the lightest possible sentence the Court 23 can give Mr. Shnewer, and I don't even know that light is the 24 right word, he's facing a floor of 30, plus I'm realistic, I 25 know the Court obviously would give him some additional

1 sentence for the conspiracy, which is why I've asked for 35
2 years to acknowledge that there has to be and should be 3 separate sentences for both of those two offenses.

4 But even at that -- and I know the Court doesn't 5 take this lightly, that's a very significant time period in 6 anyone's life. That will divest him of his -- I don't mean 7 this in this potency sense, his fertile years in life. His 8 24th birthday was yesterday, as your Honor knows from the 9 presentence report, and 35 years from now he will be a much 10 different person I'd submit to the Court.

11 As Inas I think succinctly and well said it, your 12 Honor got to see one side of Mr. Shnewer during the trial.
13 And that's the nature of a trial, it focuses on what the 14 crimes charged are, what evidence is in support of those and 15 there's very little from the perspective of looking at the 16 person's entire life that is presented during a trial, because 17 of the rules of evidence and because that's not the focus.

18 But that's the focus now, and if we look at a 19 broader picture of Mr. Shnewer I'd submit that the balance of 20 the 3553 factors does mitigate in favor of a sentence that is 21 not lenient, but that would allow Mr. Shnewer to have some 22 productivity and provide society some productivity. And I'll 23 -- in the context of addressing each of the factors I'll 24 expand on that a little bit.

25 I heard Mr. Fitzpatrick say yesterday that these

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

34

1 defendants, and I'm -- obviously that included Mr. Shnewer; 2 should not receive leniency because of the work of the FBI in 3 stopping this conspiracy and its object. I'm not asking the 4 Court for -- again, I don't think it's a lenient sentence to 5 get a 35 or even a 40 year sentence, and I'm not in any way 6 suggesting that because the FBI stopped this conspiracy and 7 its object from coming to fruition, that the Court should 8 credit Mr. Shnewer in any way for that.

9 I'm asking the Court to credit him so to speak at 10 and to sentence him based on who he is, beyond the mere -- not 11 mere, but beyond the facts and circumstances of the nature of 12 the offense.

13 As the Court heard and as you can see from the 14 presentence report, to the extent that he was capable within 15 his life balancing his work responsibilities, his family 16 responsibilities, he was a charitable person. You heard an 17 example from Lameese, and again I didn't anticipate her 18 speaking, of how he had out of his pocket or out of his store
19 helped homeless people when they would come in. How he was a 20 giving person as Mr. Holey just told the Court in terms of his 21 interaction with others.

22 That's an indication that he's not the single-minded
23 exclusively hard core terrorist that the -- and I'm looping 24 back to the terrorism enhancement but now we're in a different 25 context; that that guideline and it's

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 lock-them-up-throw-away-the-key-forever provision is intended 2 to apply to.

3 Look, those videos that Mr. Hammer referenced and we 4 all saw at trial are hard to watch. They were difficult and 5 troublesome, but I also think that there can be a contrast
6 drawn. The individuals that were depicted as the terrorists
7 in those videos were I would submit to the Court a different 8 kind of terrorist than Mr. Shnewer.

9 And I don't like using labels but I'm going to use 10 that label because its applicable to the case, the terrorism 11 enhancement, and Mr. Shnewer was not single-mindedly devoted 12 to this plot, this conspiracy.

13 And your Honor asked the question yesterday of the 14 Government, you know, why should we abandon all potential hope 15 of rehabilitation, that somebody in 30 or 35 or 40 years can't 16 change. I'd respectfully submit that Mr. Shnewer is a person 17 who can, he's already started that process and he's going to 18 address that with your Honor.

19 And I'll tell the Court because I don't intend 20 unless it's necessary to address the Court again after he 21 speaks, a half hour -- well, more than that now, but when I 22 was speaking with Mr. Shnewer this morning was the first time
23 I heard what he was going to say.

24 I met with him last week, I asked him to give me a 25 general outline of what he's going to say, but frankly I gave

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

36

1 him no parameters. I told him look, you know what you're 2 facing, this is your day in court, if you want to speak, say 3 whatever you want to say.

4 I was actually very impressed with what he just read 5 to me, and I think your Honor will be from the perspective of 6 it does show that he's already begun the process of change, 7 and that was not at my prompting and I'll represent that to 8 the Court, these are his words, had nothing to do with 9 anything I said to him.

10 I think there's evidence even in some of those 11 transcripts, and Mr. Hammer referenced one of them, that there 12 was the conversation that in isolated context sounds horrible 13 where Mr. Shnewer said that it was his dream to go to 14 Palestine and kill Jews in his own land.

15 The fact that he didn't, and why he didn't according 16 to Mr. Omar, is an indication to the Court that he's a person 17 who is amenable to rehabilitation, who can change, who's not 18 so radicalized that he can't become a productive member of 19 society and abandon his views.

20 You'll recall Mr. Omar telling -- and I don't even 21 remember if it was on direct or cross-examination, that the 22 reason Mr. Shnewer didn't go to Palestine to kill Jews was 23 because his mother and father dissuaded him from doing that, 24 told him not to. And he didn't. I'd submit that any one of 25 those terrorists we saw in those videos would not have reacted

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 that way.

2 And that's an indication that he's capable of 3 changing his views or at least his behavior when he's directed 4 in certain ways. And frankly a 35 year sentence will do that.
5 And that's a sentence obviously I've asked the Court to 6 impose.

7 But that's a hint that he's not incorrigible, that 8 he's not a person that we can just, you know, proverbially
9 bury under the jail and should bury under the jail. And I 10 know that's obviously, you know, not a popular sentiment, but 11 that's not why we're here and I know your Honor appreciates 12 that. But he's somebody who had residual value and can have 13 residual value.

14 So the history of his prior acts and the absence of 15 his criminal record is telling, and your Honor referenced that 16 he will consider it and I know you will. The Government's 17 brief somewhat -- I forget the word Mr. Hammer used to 18 compliment one of my arguments, but I will say somewhat 19 creatively and I mean that in an appropriate sense, said that, 20 you know, look, he's had advantages, he doesn't have a prior 21 record and that should work to his disadvantage. That's the 22 first time I've heard that frankly.

23 That's a little bit of a stretch, and I mean that 24 respectfully. That's a positive factor, that he's got no 25 prior contact with the criminal justice system. And I don't

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

38

1 see spinning it any other way than a fair spin.

2 He's got no mental health history that would 3 adversely impact on his ability to be rehabilitated. He's got 4 no history of substance abuse. He has a high school 5 education, some college which he discontinued as you heard and 6 as you know from the trial to support his family.

7 And again in the evidence there are clues and 8 indications that Mr. Shnewer is amenable to rehabilitation, 9 that he's not the single-minded hard core incorrigible 10 jihadist that the life plus 30 sentence would really be 11 intended to affect.

12 He, for example, only spent 24 hours or less at this 13 second Poconos training session because he needed to go back 14 to work to continue to assist his family financially.

15 If he was the extremist hard core jihadist who would 16 stop at nothing to accomplish these goals that would be his 17 single-minded exclusive direction of action. But we saw a 18 dichotomy even in the evidence limited as it is in the context
19 of a trial that was presented by the Government.

20 That's an indication that Mr. Shnewer is amenable to 21 rehabilitation, he had other priorities in life as well. I'm 22 not suggesting that, you know, he didn't spend a lot of time 23 with Mr. Omar, he didn't drive by Fort Dix, Dover any other 24 places, he did, he took time to do those things too, I'm not 25 shying away from that.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 But there was a balance, unlike again coming back to 2 those videos and, you know, at times it maybe got campy in 3 terms of the way I addressed it as trial, but those guys in 4 their physical calisthenics and their training. They were 5 single-minded hard core jihadists who weren't stopping their 6 training day to go drive their cab or, you know, work in the 7 family's meet market or drive their sister to the mall which 8 again we heard testimony from Agent Parmigiani happened. Mr.
9 Shnewer had -- you know, was living in a sense two lives. But 10 it shows that he can also lead a productive life.

11 His employment history I don't need to belabor, your 12 Honor heard a lot about it at trial, the presentence report 13 does a good job of laying that and his mother also addressed 14 it since age 17 he's been productively employed.

15 At times working basically double shifts, working in 16 the family store during the day in Pennsauken and driving the 17 cab at night to support his family.

18 His family life was productive and positive, you 19 heard about that today and you heard about it at trial; no 20 prior criminal record.

21 So I'd submit that when your Honor looks at all 22 those factors and sentences the whole person, a 35 year 23 sentence, respectfully is sufficient but not greater than 24 necessary to meet all the attendant purposes of sentencing.

25 The first being obviously specific deterrence. He's

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

40

1 24 years old as he sits here today; if your Honor were to 2 sentence him to the sentence I've requested of 35 years, he'd 3 be in his mid to late 50s, accounting for potential good time
4 behavior and two years in pretrial detention.

5 He will look -- despite what sister said a few 6 moments ago it's fairly unlikely that if he's released at that 7 time he'll ever get married. He won't be, and I don't mean 8 this disrespectfully to him, the best catch in terms of normal 9 societal perspective.

10 It's very unlikely he'd ever father children with 11 that 35 year history behind him. It's very unlikely that 12 he'll ultimately -- and hopefully he will continue and pursue 13 his education, but he will ultimately have the kind of 14 opportunities that an otherwise situated 24 year old young man 15 would have had, and that's his own doing and I get that.

16 But nonetheless, 35 years is a long time, it's 11 17 years more than he's been alive. And if we all think back at 18 least those of us who are over 35 to all the life's events 19 that have happened in 35 years, it's a significant punishment, 20 a significant specific deterrence.

21 His parents if we look at normal life expectancy as 22 I said in my brief in all likelihood will be very close if not 23 deceased by the time he's released. His five sisters likely 24 will all be married with children that he won't know except 25 maybe through glass once a month. All very specific deterrent

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 effects that that sentence would have.

2 Obviously your Honor also has to look at general
3 deterrence, and again I think your Honor said this yesterday, 4 is any sentence you impose ever going to deter the hard core 5 radicalized jihadist like in those videos who are willing to 6 blow themselves up and die of course not.

7 So I'd submit we have the kind of marginalize those 8 people from the general deterrent effect. Because candidly
9 there is no sentence your Honor can impose that would deter 10 those minded persons.

11 So if we're looking to deter persons who are like 12 Mr. Shnewer for the same reasons I just said who have a life, 13 who have a family who have -- who enjoy that family, who are 14 devoted to it, who aren't willing to sacrifice all for you 15 know, jihad, and he wasn't -- again the examples I gave, the 16 training was limited by his work, with his family. His need 17 to help support them.

18 If we're trying to deter that kind of person who I'd 19 submit can be deterred, a 35 year sentence is adequate to do 20 that I'd submit respectfully.

21 And for the same reasons I think it's certainly 22 punitive with respect to Mr. Shnewer, for all those reasons I
23 just indicated it certainly would be a punitive sentence. No 24 one I think rationally could ever say that a 35 year sentence 25 is light for anybody.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

42

1 You know, I had a sentencing last week, where my 2 client received life plus 10 years. It was in this 3 courthouse, and that individual had actually been convicted of 4 a murder for hire, pointed a gun at someone, shot and killed 5 him, shot him three times.

6 And ironically -- and again, I know the Government 7 in its brief says it's a predictable response for the defense 8 to say that nobody died here and they didn't, and I have to be 9 mindful for that and I'd be remiss if I didn't mention it. I 10 keep it in context and I know the context of this. But that 11 individual got life plus 10 years; Mr. Shnewer is facing life 12 plus 30 on the top end.

13 I had a sentencing last year where an individual 14 robbed six -- five banks and a liquor store, federal 15 sentencing, discharged the gun during one of them, had a prior 16 conviction of stabbing someone in the chest. After he was 17 arrested for the bank robbery he was being held in the FDC and 18 smuggled out a razor blade into the federal building in 19 Philadelphia where he then tried to sexually assault his then 20 female court appointed lawyer and I was subsequently appointed 21 to represent him in both cases. I'm know you're saying how 22 does he get all these easy cases --

23 THE COURT: Right.

24 MR. CIPPARONE: I'm a magnet for them apparently.

25 THE COURT: Right.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 MR. CIPPARONE: And that individual got 890 some 2 months in jail. And I keep that in context in my mind when 3 I'm thinking about what sentence should I urge the Court for a 4 client because I try to be objective, obviously I'm an 5 advocate, obviously I have a job to do and I try to do that 6 zealously.

7 But I do try to also be reasonable and rational and 8 objective to an extent when I make presentations to the Court.
9 And Mr. Shnewer is somebody who can be rehabilitated. And I 10 submit that considering all those factors and the others I've 11 referenced in my brief, the appropriate fair and just sentence 12 is 30 years which the Court has to give him at a minimum, on 13 the Count 4 offense, and an additional five years for the 14 conspiracy offense of which he's been convicted in Count 1.

15 And unless your Honor has questions of me I'm 16 willing to ask Mr. Shnewer to address the Court if he wishes.

17 THE COURT: No, I don't have any questions. Thank 18 you.

19 MR. CIPPARONE: Thank you, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Mr. Shnewer, you have an absolute right 21 to speak at this time. If you chose not to I won't hold it 22 against you, but if you have something to say now is the time 23 to say it.

24 Mr. Cipparone, will you bring that microphone over 25 toward him so we can all here what he has to say.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

44

1 MR. CIPPARONE: Sure.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 THE DEFENDANT: First and foremost, I'd like to 4 apologize to my mother, father, and my sisters for putting 5 them through this hardship. I also like to apologize to my 6 co-defendants, and their families for what they've gone 7 through.

8 I put the majority of the blame on myself. I still 9 proclaim our innocence, me and my co-defendants of course.

10 Yes, I spoke to Mr. Omar, but I never intended on acting upon 11 those words, and more importantly I never discussed any attack 12 or killing of U.S. soldiers to anyone in general, and my 13 co-defendants specifically.

14 The only such dialogue was between me and Mr. Omar.
15 Mr. Omar also knew the others, didn't know of our 16 conversations, and that's why he didn't approach any of them 17 clearly and directly about any attack on a military 18 installation.

19 I led a positive life before meeting Mr. Omar. I 20 just had opened my parents' butcher shop and was getting ready 21 to get married and start a family. I never got in trouble 22 with the law, before or during the time of this investigation.

23 I worked long hours trying to help my family, 24 including some days I'd be away from home days at a time 25 trying to make ends meet.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 I had many responsibilities that I take care of, as 2 best as I can you humanly do. Even though I spoke about 3 attacking the military, I didn't intend on carrying those 4 words out. I was more worried about my work and my family.

5 For example, the so-called training trip to Poconos,
6 I was there for less than 24 hours. My reason was because I 7 had to work.

8 Anytime Mr. Omar called me I was working. I was 9 going along with Mr. Omar and adding ideas because I wanted to 10 fit in with him. I was too embarrassed and intimidated to 11 tell him that all the time I spent talking to him I didn't 12 mean it. I thought he might not speak to me or even worse 13 hang out with me.

14 I tried to give him indirect signs, but he wasn't 15 letting up. So I tried to tell him directly on the 30th of 16 March 2007, but ultimately coward it up.

17 Even when the weapons were mentioned I said yeah
18 I'll buy them. But then when he said he was going to bring 19 them I backed away. I was hoping that he'd get the point and 20 go away. When that didn't happen I just avoided him as much 21 as I can. That was the case summarized how I view it.

22 As for the Government said -- as for what the 23 Government says, once a jihadist always a jihadist, I wouldn't 24 know. I don't consider myself as jihadist. I might have 25 spoken like a jihadist, but I definitely don't have what it

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

46

1 takes to be a jihadist. Because I don't see myself ever 2 taking another person's life.

3 I can't even see myself saying those words now. Let 4 alone acting upon them. If I do get another chance I will 5 definitely not take it for granted. I will lead a healthy
6 positive life, and I'll be a valuable asset to any society I 7 live in.

8 I believe I deserve a second chance at life. After 9 being incarcerated for two years which have felt an eternity 10 without my family, I've learned many things; the first and 11 most important lesson is that I should never lie, no matter 12 how much it hurts, or what the consequences are.

13 I also learned I could never take another person's 14 life because of how much else is taken with one person's life, 15 and how much of a loss one person's life is, not only to his 16 family but also to society.

17 I've learned the true meaning behind the verses of 18 iman, which says whoever saves one life it's as if he's saved 19 all of humanity and whoever takes one life it's as if he's 20 taken all of humanity.

21 I saw the effects on my family when I was taken from 22 them and I'd never be able to do that to anyone after seeing 23 that effect personally. My family was always my priority.
24 More so now than ever.

25 I learned the true meaning of life and what it means

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 to have a caring supportive family. I've always considered
2 myself a great family man who's taking care of his family
3 whenever -- whenever I could do so.

4 All I want is to have a productive life down the 5 line even though I might never get married or have kids, which 6 hurts my soul every time I think about it.

7 I learned that even the words that don't mean
8 anything to me, might mean a lot to others and for that I now 9 know the effects of my words.

10 These last two years away from my family and loved 11 ones have felt like a lifetime. And alone enough, a deterrent 12 enough to let me know the seriousness of these charges.

13 If I get a second chance at life you won't have to 14 worry about me breaking any laws. There's nothing in the 15 world worth spending a night in jail for. Believe me, this is 16 one lesson that I'll never forget.

17 I can't even comprehend the fact that I'm going to 18 be removed from my family for any longer than I've already had 19 to live through. Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Before I get to the sentence, I assume Mr.
22 Cipparone, that you object to the restitution obligation?

23 MR. CIPPARONE: Yes, your Honor, for the reasons set 24 forth in my submissions.

25 THE COURT: All right. And the Government thinks

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

48

1 probation got the calculation correct.

2 MR. HAMMER: That's correct, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Well, I will make a finding as I have in 4 the previous defendants, that the probation office finding is 5 supported by the evidence in the case. I think they made a 6 reasonable attempt to estimate the actual loss to the victims 7 in this case, and I think $125,000 is the right number and 8 there will be a restitution obligation.

9 All right. I've resolved the guidelines issues and 10 made findings on the terrorism enhancement, official victim
11 enhancement, and we've discussed Mr. Cipparone's application 12 for a variance and I denied that.

13 So, we're left at a 51, with a criminal history 14 category of six. And as I've said in the other cases, the 15 criminal history category really becomes irrelevant at a level 16 51.

17 So I turn now to the factors under 3553. The first 18 and most important in all these cases is the nature and 19 circumstances of the offense, and the history and 20 characteristics of the defendant.

21 As has been mentioned he has no criminal record 22 whatsoever. He has four violations at FDC Philadelphia for 23 refusing to obey an order and possessing an unauthorized item 24 and destroying property, which are not terribly significant.

25 He was born in Jordan, lived in Cherry Hill;

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 interesting, interesting family history. His father was 2 arrested in Palestine twice by the Israelis. Claims that 3 Israel wanted him to spy on his fellow Muslims, which he 4 refused. He relocated to Jordan and the Jordanian officials 5 thought he was an Israeli spy.

6 Moved to Saudi Arabia and eventually came to the 7 United States, settled in Philadelphia and moved to Cherry 8 Hill in 1996.

9 Mr. Shnewer became a naturalized U.S. citizen in 10 2004. We know it's a family -- and these are all so tragic 11 and so sad. The destruction of these families because of what 12 these young men have done.

13 One of his sisters is married to one of the Dukas.
14 He's single, has no children. No drug or alcohol use or 15 abuse. Graduated from Cherry Hill High School West, was a 16 fair student; has some college at Camden County College.

17 He has a cab driver's license, worked as a cab 18 driver; worked at the food market; worked as a waiter at a 19 restaurant in Marlton; worked for Cingular and Verizon; on a 20 whole a fairly positive life to this point.

21 But then we turn to the nature of the offense, and 22 the Government is correct, he was the epicenter of this 23 conspiracy. He's the one who chose Fort Dix, he emphasized 24 how easy this attack would be; because Sadam knows it like the 25 back to his hand.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

50

1 Dreamed of killing Jews, and that's not the only 2 reference in the tapes. He did not have kind words for Jewish 3 people.

4 He did the surveillances. And some of the things he 5 said are just horrifying. He's very clear about the reasons
6 why they wanted to kill American soldiers, and destroy 7 American buildings.

8 Eliminate any feeling that they have achieved 9 anything with this war on terror. Talked about attacking the 10 national guard armory in Cherry Hill, killing them all and 11 taking the weapons they need. And the videos; my gosh, the 12 videos, just awful stuff. And he seemed the revel in that 13 stuff.

14 He says today he can't believe he said some of these 15 things because he couldn't consider taking another person's 16 life. All he talked about -- this wasn't a one-time incident; 17 all he talked about was killing people, how best to do that, 18 how to destroy things. And why it was important to kill and 19 destroy.

20 And I agree with his family, he's an entirely 21 different person that they seemed to know, but that's who he 22 is. And that's what he did.

23 There's no question in my mind he was motivated by 24 hatred of Jews and Americans. He desired to kill, he agreed 25 to kill, he planned to kill.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 This is a very serious crime. As I have stated
2 repeatedly, it's the most serious crime I can imagine under 3 the guidelines. It's clear the Commission wanted to punish 4 this crime severely.

5 In order to promote respect for the law as to 6 deterrence, I hear what he says; of course I hear every 7 defendant tell me they'll never commit another crime.

8 And I also heard the months after months of tapes.
9 Which indicates to me that he is so deeply committed to this 10 ideology and this desire to kill that he can't be 11 rehabilitated.

12 The public needs to be protected from him, because 13 he will commit other crimes if given a chance.

14 I have reviewed the sentences that are available;
15 obviously we spent a lot of time talking about the guidelines,
16 and the policy statements in the guidelines. The sentence 17 disparity is really not an issue in this case. Restitution as 18 I have said will be ordered. I am left with a firm conclusion 19 as difficult as it is that only a sentence of life is 20 sufficient to accomplish the goals of the law.

21 Therefore, pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 22 1984, it's the judgment of this court, that Mohamad Ibrahim 23 Shnewer is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of 24 Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of life on Count one, a 25 term of 360 months on Count four to be served consecutively to 1 produce a term of imprisonment of lifeless, plus 360 months.

2 If released from imprisonment, he's place on supervised
3 release for a term of life plus five years. That's lifetime 4 supervision on Count one, and five years on Count four all to 5 run consecutively. Within 72 hours of release from the Bureau
6 of Prisons, he shall report in person to the probation office
7 in the district in which he's released. He shall not commit
8 any other Federal, State or Local crime. He shall not possess
9 any firearm or other dangerous device. He shall not possess 10 any illegal controlled substance and shall comply with the 11 other standard conditions adopted by this court. He must 12 submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of 13 supervised release and at least two tests thereafter as 14 determined by Probation. Because of the restitution 15 obligation, the amount of a hundred 25 thousand dollars he 16 must cooperate with the U. S. Probation in the investigation 17 of his financial dealings and provide full disclosure of his 18 financial records. He is prohibited from incurring any new 19 credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without 20 approval of Probation, unless he's in compliance with a 21 payment schedule, and he cannot incur or liquidate any 22 assets unless it's to pay the restitution obligation or 23 otherwise has the express approval of the Court. He must 24 cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by Probation.
25 I will waive any interest requirement on the restitution

*United States District Court

1 obligation. Payments must be paid to the U. S. Treasury and 2 forwarded to the Clerk of the Court for distribution to the 3 Department of the Army. This is the total amount due to the 4 victim for this loss. His restitution obligation is not 5 affected by any restitution payments made by other defendants, 6 except that he shall not have to make any further payments
7 once all the amount is paid by all the defendants. This order 8 applies to other defendants in this case. I do recommend he 9 participate the Bureau of Prisons Inmate Financial 10 Responsibility Program, and pay $25 every three months of the.
11 In the event that he is released from prison, and he hasn't 12 paid the restitution obligation, he must pay at least $500 a 13 month starting 30 days after release from confinement. He 14 does not have ability to pay a fine in addition to 15 restitution, therefore, there will be no fine. However, he 16 must pay total special assessment of $200 which is due 17 immediately. And he must notify the U. S. Attorney of any 18 change in address within 30 days so long as any portion of the 19 restitution remains unpaid.
20 Mr. Shnewer, you have a right to appeal this sentence 21 and conviction in this matter, but you must take your appeal 22 within ten days of today.
23 We'll take a 15 minute break and we will resume with 24 Mr. Tatar in 15 minutes. Thank you.
25 (The matter was then concluded)

1 charged on count one with conspiracy for which he --

2 MR. SPARACO: That's not correct, Judge. He was 3 charged.

4 THE COURT: That's right. Thank you very much.

11 12AM 5 You're right. I was focusing on the weapons offenses.

6 MR. SPARACO: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Because that's what makes the 8 consecutive. It's been a long two days. Anyway, the 9 Probation Office has with the others calculated a starting 11 12AM 10 point of the Guidelines of 33, add six for the official victim 11 enhancement and 12 for terrorism enhancement. He has criminal 12 history category on his own of one but it's increased under 13 the Guidelines to six.

14 All right. Mr. Sparaco, let's talk about the 11 13AM 15 objections, if you want to put them on the record.

16 MR. SPARACO: Thank you, Your Honor. As Your Honor 17 just indicated it's been a long two days for you and you've 18 already heard from my esteemed colleagues on many of the 19 issues that I raised in my sentencing memo and in my 11 13AM 20 objections to the Presentence Report and, of course, the 21 arguments today would be almost identical to the those of my 22 cocounsel. With regard to the 3(a)1.2 official victim 23 enhancement. Mr. Tatar's situation may be a little different 24 from everyone else in this case and I would argue that the 11 13AM 25 additional argument with regard to 3(a)1.2 the motivational

2 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: All rise.

3 THE COURT: Have a seat everybody, please.

4 (Defendant Serdar Tatar present).

11 11AM 5 THE COURT: All right. This is the matter of United 6 States versus Tatar. We'll start with the appearance of 7 counsel, please. For the Government.

8 MR. FITZPATRICK: William Fitzpatrick and Michael 9 Hammer for the United States, Your Honor.

11 11AM 10 MR. SPARACO: Good morning, Your Honor. Richard 11 Sparaco on behalf of Serdar Tatar.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Sparaco, have you and your client had 13 sufficient opportunity to review the pre-sentence 14 investigation report?

11 11AM 15 MR. SPARACO: Yes, we have, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: And other than the issues that you raise 17 with the Probation Department, which we will deal with any or 18 anything else you want to note about it on the record.

11 12AM 19 MR. SPARACO: Nothing in addition to what I've 20 already raised, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. How about the government?
22 Have you had sufficient to review the pre-sentence report?

23 MR. FITZPATRICK: Yes.

11 12AM 24 THE COURT: All right. We'll get to the objections 25 in a second. Mr. Tatar was convicted on Count one, only

4

1 factor because Mr. Tatar never used, uses words such as Jihad
2 Mujihadeen. And it's not really clear, crystal clear I should 3 say. I know the court is coming away with the impression that 4 the motivational aspect of these, of that enhancement is it 11 14AM 5 was because of the official victim characteristics of the 6 victim is that why we have this enhancement, but Mr. Tatar 7 like I said it's not really clear because it's not really 8 explicit but I would agree that the implications are that it 9 would apply. And as far as 3(a)1.4 terror enhancement, Judge, 11 14AM 10 counsel has argued this ad nauseam and, Your Honor, has 11 already ruled only that. So I'm going to move on to my other 12 objection and it was in my objections to the pre-sentence
13 report. It didn't make it into my memo was the minor role 14 adjustment or minimal role adjustment which overlaps with the 11 14AM 15 3553(a) arguments but what I'll do is I'll argue that now when 16 I speak on 3553 I will just incorporate what I'm saying right 17 now.

18 THE COURT: Good.

19 MR. SPARACO: So, for minor minimal role objection, I 11 15AM 20 submit that Mr. Tatar was the least involved in this case. He 21 was not involved at all with any of the Shnewer surveillance 22 of the military bases. He didn't even have knowledge of Mr.
23 Shnewer going out and surveilling these bases. Mr. Shnewer 24 had shown several videos to Mahmoud Omar and the other 11 15AM 25 co-defendants. As you know from the trial, we were able to

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 get a limiting instruction to the jury that the violent 2 beheading videos were not to be used against Mr., Tatar for 3 purposes of determining his guilt or innocence, but likewise 4 there were other videos, propaganda videos that were not 5 observed by Mr. Tatar. There was no evidence that he observed
6 those videos. So again, just as another aspect of this case 7 Mr. Tatar wasn't involved in.

8 THE COURT: The only tape he was involved in was that 9 audio tape.

11 10AM 10 MR. SPARACO: That's correct. That was March the 9, 11 2007.

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 MR. SPARACO: The court will recall then that he was 14 invited there by Dritan Duka to listen to the tape. He didn't 15 really comment on the tape at the end he kept on saying I got 16 to go. He wanted to just get home at that point.

17 With regard to the training in the Poconos in 2007.

18 Now Mr. Tatar didn't go. Why? Because he needed to work. I 19 submit that if Mr. Tatar was very much interested in carrying 20 out or being a strong part of this conspiracy, he wouldn't 21 have missed an important session such as the training out in 22 the Poconos for a whole week. He is not involved in any 23 thoughts of obtaining a Fatwa. This is all part of Eljvir 24 Duka and Shnewer's ideas about needing a Fatwa before they 25 could proceed. Mr. Tatar isn't involved in that. He doesn't

United States District Court

6

1 know anything about that. Eljvir Duka downloading maps off
2 the internet. He doesn't know about that. Yes, Mr. Tatar 3 does give a map to Omar. But he doesn't follow up after 4 giving that map. He's -- there's several conversations
5 between Omar and Shnewer about lets' get Serdar to come 6 explain this plan to us. Mr. Tatar is not involved in that at 7 all. Doesn't come. Doesn't show them where on the map would 8 be the strategic places to hit. And, lastly, and I know that 9 the co-defendants, this is a major part of their case, and a 10 major part of this conspiracy is that AK47's machine guns were 11 purchased on May 7, 2007. Although Mr. Tatar wasn't charged 12 with the purchase of those guns or attempted purchase of the 13 guns, that was a major part of this conspiracy, a major piece 14 of evidence in this conspiracy and it's crystal clear that Mr.

15 Tatar had absolutely no knowledge that his codefendants were 16 obtaining machine guns on that particular date.

17 So I would submit and like I said I'm going to 18 incorporate this in my 3553 argument, that he's entitled to a 19 role adjustment because of his least involvement in this case.

20 THE COURT: Let me hear from the government in 21 response to that, and then we'll get to your next argument.

22 MR. FITZPATRICK: Your Honor, obviously whatever the 23 Court's pleasure. So much of my argument as I understand it 24 what counsel primarily is arguing is the minor they role.

25 THE COURT: Right.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 MR. FITZPATRICK: Is contained within my overall 2 presentation to the court in 3553(a). If the court would like 3 maybe it will expedite things if I just make one presentation 4 to Your Honor and incorporate all that or unless you'd like to 5 do the --

6 THE COURT: Well, no. I'll just make the ruling. I 7 know what you're going to say about the facts and the facts
8 are sufficient here that he is not a minimal nor minor
9 participant in this. He's not substantially less culpable 10 than the average participants in this. And I agree that Mr.
11 Sparaco that he -- there isn't the same quantum of evidence 12 particularly as to the statements of intent to kill and things 13 of that as there are with the other defendants. Nevertheless, 14 he is not so insignificant that he qualifies for an adjustment
15 under the Guidelines. Certainly it's a factor under 3553.

16 And the other adjustments are variances you want to talk 17 about. There's the imperfect withdrawal you raise.

18 MR. SPARACO: I did, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you want to talk about that?

20 MR. SPARACO: Yes, briefly, I want to talk about 21 that. I know this is an unusual fact pattern in this case.
22 To this day, I can't for the life of me explain, and I know 23 the government's position is that Serdar went to the 24 Philadelphia Police because he was trying to weed out an 25 informant. I don't accept that, Judge. I don't think the

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

8

1 jury had to accept my arguments and the judge knows what my 2 strategy, my position was at trial was that he is trying to 3 report an act of terrorism. It just doesn't make any sense
4 for Mr. Tatar to go to a law enforcement officer and reveal 5 himself even though the government's position was that he 6 didn't reveal the co-defendants. He did reveal himself to law
7 enforcement. And did subsequently reveal himself to the FBI.
8 And subsequent to and for the life of me I don't know why the 9 map was turned over on November 28th, except that he possibly 10 wanted to keep Omar close to him so he could gather some more 11 information. But it's clear that last November 28th, he drops 12 off the map, so-to-speak. He is not part of any training in 13 February. He's not part of the gun purchase. The only 14 discussions he had, he has is on the March 9, 2007 gathering
15 to listen to the Constance of Jihad. And I don't even think 16 he knew that it was the Constance of Jihad. The beginning of 17 the lecture he says what's this called. It's the Constance of 18 Jihad. Oh, okay. Then he watches the Constance of Jihad and 19 he says I got to go. I know where withdrawal is and I, of 20 course he did not reveal everything that he knew about the 21 conspiracy. Everything he did himself, including giving the 22 map. So I think that the Guidelines don't take into 23 consideration this unique fact scenario where he does these 24 actions. And yet is convicted of a conspiracy to kill 25 American military personnel which could have been based solely

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 on Omar's statement to him, listen, we want to do something to 2 Fort Dix. And my client says, you want some maps. I can give 3 you some maps. And then you have an overt act actually giving 4 over the map and that's enough for him to be convicted of the 5 conspiracy. But I believe that the Guidelines don't take into 6 consideration in unique fact scenario when he simply reveals 7 himself to the police, reveals himself to the FBI and then 8 basically withdraws after that.

9 THE COURT: Well, I've got to tell you that I know
10 what the government is going to say. And I would if I needed 11 to find by a preponderance of the evidence that their theory 12 is correct. I do believe that he went to the police for the 13 purpose of trying to find out what, if anything, he could 14 about Omar's status as an informant. I read the letter and 15 reread the letter and reread the letter that he wrote for 16 probation on his life story. And how he essentially wanted to 17 be a junior G-man and thought that when Omar approached him, 18 that he was, he Omar was a real terrorist and that Mr. Tatar 19 could help smoke him out as a terrorist for the FBI. He does 20 acknowledge in that letter that he lied to the FBI and the 21 police. He states his reasons which are not terribly 22 convincing. He says he just forgot to tell them about 23 Shnewer. And that he lied about the map because he, for lack 24 of a better term I guess he didn't feel the FBI was showing 25 him such respect. He thought they were now targeting him.

United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey

10

1 It's all, all difficult to accept. And so, the lying to the 2 police officer and the FBI I think is fatal to your claim of 3 withdrawal from the conspiracy. And I'm going to deny your 4 request for a variance for that.

5 MR. SPARACO: Thank you, Your Honor. I have nothing 6 further except for the 3553.

7 THE COURT: All right. Well then, let's hear here 8 from the Government on your position on sentencing and the 9 3553 factors.

10 MR. FITZPATRICK: Your Honor, the government's 11 position with respect to sentencing is that a reasonable and 12 appropriate sentence for this defendant is life imprisonment 13 under the statutory factors enumerated in 3553(a). And this 14 is why.

15 The United States would first obviously accept and 16 adopt the Court's observation which is completely correct from 17 any perspective that the quantum of evidence and the nature of 18 the evidence is different from the other four defendants to 19 Mr. Tatar. Now what I would offer the Court is there are 20 reasons for that. The nature of the relationship between the 21 other four defendants, particularly the three Duka defendants 22 and Mr. Bakalli, the nature of the relationship between Mr.
23 Shnewer and Mr. Omar was different than the nature of the 24 relationship between this defendant Mr. Tatar and either of 25 the cooperating witnesses who are able to record the innermost

United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey

1 thoughts and to identify the intent and the true feelings of 2 the other defendants. But what that does, the position that 3 that puts what I would respectfully submit, Your Honor, in is 4 inferring from the other evidence the other statements what 5 this defendant's true character is, what his true intent was 6 and from that, identify the full scope of his participation in 7 the conspiracy and his full commitment to the object of this 8 conspiracy. Because what I would submit, Your Honor, is the 9 life sentence is based not only on the obvious fact that he 10 gave the map over and the terrible consequences from which 11 that map was going to be used, but just the full nature and 12 the full scope of his participation and I think where Mr.
13 Tatar really suffers is when we view this really on the 14 timing, because Mr. Tatar's participation does not begin in 15 October of 2006, October 31st when the discussion of the map 16 first occurs. What we know about Mr. Tatar is that he 17 participated in this January 2006 Pocono trip, the same tripe
18 that began this entire investigation. What we know about Mr.
19 Tatar is also in early 2006, he purchased this CX4 Storm 20 semiautomatic rifle, the Mossberg 12-gauge shotgun. He 21 purchased them in his name to be used by the Dukas and by Mr.
22 Shnewer. The CX4, the very same weapon that Dritan Duka later 23 on described is the gun that they used for city fighting.

24 We jump ahead to where Omar really begins to penetrate 25 the heart of this conspiracy. A few months, a few weeks

United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey

12

1 rather, after he really starts to record Mr. Shnewer, what 2 happens is Shnewer talks on August 1st for the first time
3 about attacking Fort Dix. On August 2nd, for the first time
4 he identifies those that he plans to carry out the attack
5 with. And he specifically mentions the three Duka defendants
6 and Mr. Tatar. That didn't come out of the blue. That came 7 based on the nature of the prior relationship between Shnewer, 8 the Dukas, between Shnewer and Tatar. On August 4th is when 9 Shnewer says about Mr. Tatar that he is the first among us.
10 He was ready for Jihad before us. Again, that came from the 11 nature of the relationship between them. And, yes, does it 12 cause the trier of fact, whether the jury or the court at a 13 sentencing hearing, to infer what went on before. Yes. But 14 the nature and the circumstances surrounding that statement 15 and what happens afterward completely corroborates and 16 completely support Shnewer's observation. On August 11th, 17 Shnewer says something that is completely verifiable.
18 Completely corroborated when he tells Omar that Tatar bought 19 those weapons for him in early 06. We know that to be true.
20 The same weapons again that were used not only in the 06
21 Pocono trip but the 07 Pocono trip as well. So when Shnewer
22 says about Tatar that he is the first among us, he was ready 23 for Jihad before I was, it speaks volumes about his character 24 and his commitment to the object of this conspiracy.

25 Now, Your Honor, taking a little bit out of chronology.

United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey

1 To jump ahead until March 9th and March 10th of 2007. Seven 2 months we hear the same thing from a totally different angle, 3 a totally different source, totally different conspirators
 4 talking to an entirely different cooperator. Here we gave 5 Dritan Duka also telling us in a recorded conversation about 6 his relationship with Tatar. About what he understands
 7 Tatar's commitment to this conspiracy to be. His commitment 8 to kill American soldiers. That he was ready to do this by 9 joining the military and killing from within. Now, of course, 10 we know he did try to join the military and was rejected. So 11 that part of it is corroborated just like Shnewer's earlier 12 observation was corroborated and they talk about how intent he 13 was, how serious he was about killing American soldiers and 14 doing it from within. And then we corroborate that statement 15 with some of Tatar's own words where he does tell the 16 cooperator there's lot you can do within. You can get inside 17 information. Clearly showing the same type of mind set that 18 Dritan Duka was referring to during his statements on 19 March 10th.

20 Now, despite what Mr. Sparaco says and this is a fair 21 time if I could just take a quick time out. Mr. Sparaco has 22 done a phenomenal job in the government's opinion in terms of 23 representing Mr. Tatar zealously, effectively. There's just 24 so much he can do with the facts that are before him but there 25 is nothing else any other lawyer in the State of New Jersey

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

14

1 could have done that Mr. Sparaco didn't do. And you know but 2 he can't change the facts and the facts are that Mr. Tatar 3 does re-engage. He is there on March 9th when they listen to 4 the Constance on the Path of Jihad. He does talk about the 5 Constance on the Path of Jihad and he says something 6 incredibly telling. He says, we need to prepare as soldiers.
 7 That's shows you where his mind set is. It shows you what I
 8 would respectfully offer to the court for sentencing purposes
 9 and for a preponderance it corroborates Shnewer's observations 10 seven months earlier. It corroborates the other set of 11 observations from the other side of the conspiracy that next 12 day. That this is where he is. And this is his commitment to 13 Jihad. This is his commitment to the object of the 14 conspiracy. And this is the reason why a life sentence is 15 justified for Mr. Tatar as well because he's not a hanger on.
 16 He's not a peripheral player. He is somebody who is very core 17 is committed to the object of this conspiracy and that is what 18 justifies such an unusually but appropriate harsh sentence in 19 this case. But do take a step back to that period of time 20 from October 31st of 06 through November 28th of 06. That 21 really is without a doubt the most definitive, clear, 22 expression of his participation in this conspiracy from a 23 legal standpoint and his commitment into this conspiracy from 24 what I would suggest from a sentencing standpoint as well.
 25 One issue that has always been a little confused by defense

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 counsel and it's not, nothing improper. It's just the product
 2 of good advocacy is where the idea of the map came from. Now
 3 if we go back to October 31st of 06, if we look at the status
 4 of the investigation at that point, what does the FBI know.
 5 They know he was there in January of 2006. They know that he 6 bought these weapons. They know that Shnewer has identified
 7 him as an attacker. They know he's been identified by Shnewer 8 as the first among us. Ready for Jihad before I am. And so, 9 with that in mind, with that in mind, Omar simply tells him
 10 that Omar wants to get back at this country for what it's done 11 to him. Omar clearly tells this defendant he clearly tells 12 this defendant that he wants to attack Fort Dix. And again, 13 why does he pick Fort Dix? Because Shnewer picked Fort Dix.
 14 Shnewer picked Fort Dix because of his relationship with Tatar 15 because quote, Sadon knows it like the back of his hand. This 16 is not something that was just randomly placed out. This is 17 based on the nature of the investigation to this point. And 18 that's all he says. That's all he says is I want to get back 19 at this country. He's just laying it out there for this 20 defendant to either inculcate himself or exculpate himself and 21 he takes it and he inculcates himself as much as he possibly 22 can because he then repeats looking at Government's 23 Exhibit 617B, beginning on page three. He then wants to make 24 sure that he got it right. He says to Omar: If you want to 25 make them pay for something they did to you. Yeah. For

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

16

1 everybody. For Muslim, for, for wherever they did because I'm 2 leaving in March. Okay. He says I understand what you're 3 saying. Okay. Omar says: Me and Mohamad. Then the first 4 time maps comes up. Serdar says you need maps. How's the 5 work. Omar says: How does it work. Serdar says: How does 6 it work. How is Fort Dix. How can we do it. Tatar says: I 7 will give you a map. No ambiguity. No if ands or buts. The 8 idea comes from him knowing what that map is going to be used 9 for. No hesitation, no qualification. Yet the only reason, 10 if you accept counsel's argument, that a map is at issue to 11 begin with, is because Tatar made it an issue. He doesn't 12 have to -- why is he telling the FBI or the Philadelphia
 13 Police Department about an issue that he created. Makes no 14 sense. Because it is simply not true. And it's not true 15 because he was a willing and aggressive participant in this 16 conspiracy. It was his idea. Omar still doesn't get it. You 17 mean like a map on the computer? He says no, no, no. I have 18 a map. I have a map. He is in this with both feet. On 19 November 9th he again says I'll get you the map. I'll get you 20 the map.

21 And then on November 12th, prosecutors, defense
 22 attorneys, and I respectfully submit, courts, could probably 23 go an entire career and not have as solidly and inculpatory 24 conspiratorial statement as this, I'm in. Honestly I'm in.
 25 Yes, it's a good thing to do. He's basically assenting to

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 understanding the scope of the conspiracy, the object of the 2 conspiracy, and now the third prong, the membership of the 3 conspiracy has clearly, without a doubt from his own words, 4 grown by one. Those are not the words of somebody who plays a 5 peripheral role or who is a hanger on.

6 THE COURT: Respectfully, I don't think Mr. Sparaco's 7 arguing that he's not guilty, he's just arguing he's less 8 guilty.

9 MR. FITZPATRICK: Well, I understand that. I 10 understand that. But his sentence under 3553(a), may very 11 well be driven by the level of his participation, by the level
12 of his commitment and he can still be guilty. And, as I 13 understand Mr. Sparaco's brief, is that, you know, he just 14 plays a different role. He plays -- he's less culpable than 15 the other four and here's why.

16 And my argument to the Court is by assenting to the 17 object of the conspiracy, by being the source of the idea for 18 the map, by jumping in this with both feet. He's jumping in 19 and he's locking arms with his codefendants in a clear and 20 unambiguous way, which I think that refutes the argument that 21 his level of culpability is anything less than the three Duka
22 brothers or Shnewer.

23 THE COURT: What do you think motivated Mr. Tartar?
24 Let's assume that he was committed to this plot and he would 25 carried it out. What do you think motivated him and what's

United States District Court

18

1 your evidence to support that? Motivated him. Him in 2 particular.

3 MR. FITZPATRICK: Yes, sir. I think we need to go no
4 further than his own words. On November 28th he tells us what 5 motivates him. On November 28th, the day he gives the map to 6 Omar. The same day he goes at Omar about are you an FBI 7 agent? You know, how do I know you're not a FBI agent? Are 8 you an informant? This is big. This is serious. Can you get 9 me out of the country after this is done? Then he gives us a 10 clear and unambiguous expression of what motivates. He says, 11 I'm going to do it. I'm going to do. I don't care if I die.
12 I don't care if I go to jail. I'm going to do it in the name 13 of Allah. That's what motivates him. What I would 14 respectfully offer to the Court is that Mr. Tatar was 15 motivated for the same reason as the other four defendants, it 16 was a perception, a perception, their perception that this was 17 their religious duty.

18 This is not a crime, as most crimes that your Honor 19 sees or that we see, that's motivated by money or that is 20 motivated by some other financial gain. This is a crime, and 21 this is what makes this different, it makes it undeterrable, 22 it makes the defendants undeterrable, this was motivated by a 23 belief that they were duty bound to do this. He tells you I'm 24 doing this in the name of Allah. He gives us his motive right 25 there, your Honor.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 THE COURT: That's the only evidence that I'm aware 2 of in which he invokes the name of Allah. I mean, the other 3 defendants, they're all over the place about this is a 4 religious duty. And I know some of his codefendants said he's 5 ready for Jihad and they talk about Jihad. But he never 6 really does, does he?

7 MR. FITZPATRICK: That's correct. And again, that 8 goes back to the first point I made to the Court, which is 9 you're absolutely right, the quantity and the nature of the 10 evidence is different. And I think the reason why we don't 11 have sort of the expressions of theological belief is the fact 12 that he doesn't have a relationship with Omar the way Shnewer 13 does. He's distrustful of Omar. He doesn't have the 14 relationship with Bakalli the way the Dukas do. He just never 15 really new Bakalli. So we don't have -- we don't have the 16 nature of a clear and unambiguous -- you know, a clear and 17 unambiguous affirmation of his religious perspective other 18 than I'm doing it in name of Allah.

19 Now, of course, as Mr. Hammer just reminded me, also on 20 March 9th when they watch the Constance of Jihad, and of 21 course the thrust of the Constance of Jihad is it is your duty
22 to attack now, it is your duty of all Muslims to attack now, 23 this is why. Tatar does respond a lot of people are waking 24 up, brother, that's the statement that's on Page 9, Line 28 of 25 Government's Exhibit 853D. So again, in response to that type

United States District Court

20

1 of theological inspiration, his response is consistent, I 2 would offer, with his earlier statement I'm doing it in the 3 name of Allah, that a lot of people are waking up, brother. A
4 lot of people are seeing things the way we see things. A lot 5 of people are understanding and appreciate the need to be 6 violent, to attack. This is a holy war. He doesn't ever call 7 himself a Mujihadeen, that's clear, but he clearly evidences 8 the same intent, the same desire. He's just not in a 9 conversation with somebody that he trusts, like Shnewer 10 trusted Omar or like the Dukas trusted Bakalli. And if the 11 Court -- I'm sorry, did I answer your Honor's question?

12 THE COURT: You did.

13 MR. FITZPATRICK: And if your Honor accepts the 14 proposition that this defendant stepped into this conspiracy 15 with both feet fully appreciating the object, fully 16 appreciating the consequences and he did so shoulder to 17 shoulder with his four codefendants, then what I would offer
18 your Honor, for the same reasons under 3553(a), the harshest
19 penalty permitted by law. It's unfortunate. It's difficult.
20 But in this case it's appropriate, necessary and reasonable.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 MR. SPARACO: Just a brief comment to a minor thing
23 that Mr. Fitzpatrick just states about the Constance of Jihad.
24 The statements and the discussion that went on with my client, 25 prepare soldiers, people are waking up, all occurred before

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 the lecture started. So it wasn't in response, when the Court
2 was asking Mr. Fitzpatrick about what motivated my client, I 3 just wanted to make that clear that these discussions were not 4 in response to this call to arms called the Constance of 5 Jihad.

6 Judge, I'm going to move on to my 3553(a) factor.

7 THE COURT: Before we get there, I assume you object 8 to the restitution obligation for the reasons expressed 9 earlier?

10 MR. SPARACO: I do, your Honor, for the same reasons 11 as my co-counsel.

12 THE COURT: I guess I should put on the record just 13 so it's clear, I think by inference it's clear, but let's make 14 it direct that I do find that the six level enhancement is 15 appropriate for the reasons expressed previously. The 12
16 level enhancement's appropriate. I think the only evidence 17 that we need to look at is the conversation about, the first 18 conversation about the Fort Dix map when Omar says that he 19 wants to get back at the U.S. and that's when your client
20 offers the map. It's clear it's in retaliation for something 21 that this government has done, so that's the only motivation, 22 evidence is necessary to support the 12 level terrorism 23 enhancement.

24 MR. SPARACO: Thank you, Judge.

25 As I indicated before, I'll incorporate all the

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

22

1 arguments I made for minor role, so I'm not going to repeat 2 those again.

3 In my sentencing memo, I went into detail, many details
4 to paint a complete a picture of Serdar as I could. I know
5 the Court indicated that it received his letter.

6 THE COURT: Yes.

7 MR. SPARACO: Which was over 30 pages, I believe.

8 THE COURT: I didn't count it. It was a long letter 9 and I read it many times.

10 MR. SPARACO: And we certainly appreciate that, 11 Judge. I know I read it a few times. I'm not going to repeat 12 all the things that he says, since you've read it so many 13 times, you know it very well.

14 THE COURT: And obviously I got all the, read all the 15 letters from the family members and friends that you attached 16 to your brief.

17 MR. SPARACO: Thank you, Judge. And because you've 18 read all of those and know all the information that's in 19 there, I just want to highlight a few things.

20 Obviously he has no criminal history points. He has no 21 juvenile offense. No adult offense. No arrest. This is 22 Serdar's first contact with any criminal justice system.

23 The Court's aware of his employment history. And his 24 education, his vocational training at Job Core in Edison, New 25 Jersey. He was trying to make a go of a business, a

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 restaurant in Philadelphia, while still working at a 7-Eleven, 2 holding two jobs, working, who knows how many hours a day to 3 support his family. Applications for jobs in law enforcement, 4 Philadelphia police, Cherry Hill police, Suffolk County and 5 out in Oakland.

6 THE COURT: And Temple University in Philadelphia.

7 MR. SPARACO: Thank you, Judge.

8 Although the government has nefarious connotations on 9 that, he really wanted to get some work, earn a good paycheck 10 so that he could provide for his family.

11 His wife was about six months pregnant when he was 12 arrested, so he's clearly trying to start a family of his own.
13 He's the father, stepfather to an 11 year old, I'm sorry, 14 maybe 12 by now, Judge, you're going to hear from him in a few 15 minutes. He had a child who was born while he was in jail, 16 August of 2007. He was trying to obtain a mortgage to buy a 17 house. Not the typical picture of a terrorist. Someone who 18 is very Americanized, wants to follow the American dream of 19 owning your own home. Got his in-laws to cosign on a mortgage 20 all right before his arrest.

21 I wrote in my memo Serdar is not a killer, doesn't 22 really talk about killing. The codefendants talk about him 23 wanting to kill from the inside, but you never hear that from 24 Serdar. I don't believe that Serdar is the radicalized person 25 that is envisioned by the enhancements, although I accept the

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

24

1 jury's finding and I accept the Court's finding of the 2 enhancement application, but I sincerely believe that Serdar
3 is not a person who will re-offend.

4 I believe that a sentence of something other than life
5 will give this young man an opportunity to be a productive 6 member of society. I don't believe that the need for the 7 sentence to afford adequate deterrence -- I believe that a 8 sentence of life imprisonment is too much to afford adequate 9 deterrence. He's 25 years old. A sentence of life in prison, 10 and I did some actuarial computations to figure out what his 11 life expectancy would be, I think it's about 75, so we're 12 talking about another 50 years before he dies, 50 years that 13 he will be in prison.

14 And Mr. Cipparone did a good job of trying to express 15 how his client would be in 35 years. I'll do the reverse and 16 I'll look back to see how long 50 years is. 1959 Dwight D.
17 Eisenhower was president. 1959 we only had 48 states. 1959
18 was the year that Buddy Holly and Richie Valens and the Big 19 Bopper dies in the big crash. If you think about it, only a 20 few of us can relate to that, but it's a long, long time. I 21 submit to the Court it's too long.

22 Something less than life -- and I know what the 23 sentences have been with the other codefendants. I know 24 Eljvir Duka faced a similar charge without the other charge of 25 the gun charge. I would submit, Judge, that his situation in

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 this case is very different from that of his codefendants in 2 that something other than life will give this young man a 3 chance to get out and have some relationship with his stepson, 4 with his son, with his wife.

5 That's my presentation, Judge. I have a few witnesses
6 I want to call.

7 THE COURT: Please.

8 MR. SPARACO: First I'm going to call on my client's 9 father, Muslim Tatar. And we have an interpreter.

11 45AM 10 THE COURT: We need to swear in the interpreter.
11 Barbara.

12 DEPUTY CLERK: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Come up here, ma'am. We'll give you an 14 oath, Ms. Arthur will give you an oath as an interpreter.
11 45AM 15 (AYSE AYYILDIZ, Interpreter, sworn.)

16 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

17 MR. SPARACO: Judge, all the witnesses are going to 18 speak without questioning.

19 THE COURT: Fine. But if you feel it necessary to 11 45AM 20 interject a question, please do so.

21 MR. SPARACO: Thank you, Judge. I will.

22 THE COURT: It may help move things along.

23 Sir, what would you like to say?

24 Why don't you tell us your name first.

11 50AM 25 MR. M. TARTAR: My name is Muslim Tatar, I am Serdar

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

26

1 Tatar father.

2 My English -- I like to talk English but it's not 3 enough, I'll just use the interpreter.

4 THE COURT: That's fine, sir.

11 50AM 5 MR. M. TARTAR: The most important thing that I want 6 to say, I'm very sorry that I have to be here. I apologize to 7 all America and to this Court that my son's name is involved 8 in this matter.

9 I love my son very much even if he's guilty or not 11 50AM 10 guilty. I respect all the laws and all the decisions. My son 11 is extremely quiet and he would never give anyone a hard time.

12 When I started working, open my restaurant, I've been 13 working for a long time, he had to stop going to school
14 because of this in order to help me. For one-and-a-half years 11 51AM 15 my son and I never had an off day. He always wanted to help 16 me. He wanted to take care of his family. But my son would 17 never even think about killing another human being. Not just 18 my son, anyone in my family would not do that. There is not 19 one person in jail from our generation in over 100 years. I'm 11 52AM 20 very sorry.

21 THE INTERPRETER: I'm sorry, he said I'm very sad.

22 MR. M. TARTAR: It's the first in my life I'm 23 appearing in court, this is very hard for me, and I only have 24 one son. I do respect the Judge's decision and I still think 11 53AM 25 that there is justice in America. We worked together in the

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 restaurant for the longest time and he delivered to the 2 military. There would be 100 people at least in my restaurant
3 every day, all military, and we service them, my son serviced 4 them. We never thought anything else, it's impossible. And 11 53AM 5 he always got along with everyone, there was never a problem.
6 I had military families working with me, she was pregnant.
7 And when my son was waiting tables, he would give her the tips
8 because he would feel bad for her.

9 I just can't say anything else. I love this country.
11 54AM 10 I'm sorry. I love this country very much and I want to live 11 here for a long time. In my country military is a holy duty.
12 And my son in the past wanted to be a police or a soldier. He 13 would never -- he never thought or he would never think of 14 hurting anyone. Even when he thought about getting married, 11 55AM 15 we found out that the person he was marrying had a little 16 child. And when I asked him was he sure, he said he was sure.
17 He said that you grew up without a father and I don't want 18 this child to grow up without a father. I'm just asking the 19 Judge, I you grew up without a father, I don't want my 11 55AM 20 grandchildren to be without a father and leaving the decision 21 to me. All my respect.

22 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

23 MR. SPARACO: Lale Sozen, this is my client's mother, 24 your Honor.

11 56AM 25 THE COURT: The Russian interpreter is for the wife

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

28

1 and in-laws?

2 MR. SPARACO: Actually just for his wife. The 3 in-laws will not be speaking today.

4 THE COURT: Okay. Good morning, ma'am. Will you
11 56AM 5 tell us your name, please?

6 MRS. SOZEN: I'm Serdar mother, Lale.

7 THE COURT: What would you like to say this morning?

8 MRS. SOZEN: Serdar would spend all of his time with 9 us either at the restaurant or at the house with his wife, 11 57AM 10 with us. He didn't have many friends. He spent most of his 11 time with his family. If he went anywhere, he would ask me 12 first and then he would go. And he would always return all 13 the time he said that he would be back.

14 We worked all together in our restaurant for the 11 57AM 15 longest time. Our customers were mostly military and he love 16 the military personnel ever since he was a little boy. And he 17 always said that he liked being in the military and he would 18 always like to wear the military personnel's hat. When he 19 spoke with them at the restaurant, he would always mention it 11 58AM 20 to them.

21 Serdar is an honest person. He would never make anyone 22 sad. I remember once he found two wallets twice and it was 23 full of money, cash, he returned it to the owners and didn't 24 take any money from it. They offered the money to thank him; 11 59AM 25 he wouldn't accept it.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 It's been two years since I've been apart from my son
2 but it felt like 20 years long and I cannot stand it. Serdar
3 doesn't deserve to be in jail, your Honor. And what he's been 4 accused with does not suit us, Serdar family or himself.
5 Serdar loves America. When we first opened our restaurant, 6 the first thing he did was to put an American flag up and he 7 said I'm an American now and I live here and I work here. I 8 remember once he closed the restaurant and came home, we live 9 in a deserted street, he hit a deer when he was crossing there 10 and he notified the police and the police had to calm him 11 down. And when he came home, he was whiter than white. He 12 was very sad and he was in bed for a week. He would never 13 hurt even an ant, your Honor.

14 Please give him to us. Please give him to his son.

15 Please don't keep him separated from his son. Don't send him 16 far away. I love you, Serdar. I can't stand it. I never 17 upset by Serdar. We were never ashamed of him. Whoever 18 framed you should be embarrassed. I love my son.

19 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

20 MRS. SOZEN: My son wanted to be a soldier just like 21 them.

22 MR. SPARACO: Your Honor, the interpreter can be 23 excused, this interpreter.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Do you need her to remain so you 25 can speak to the family afterwards?

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 MR. SPARACO: No, I have someone else that can help
2 out. His wife Khalida Mirzayeva.
3 (VALENTINA BREN-BUZIL, Interpreter, sworn.)

4 THE COURT: Thank you, ma'am.

5 All right. Would you tell us your name, please?

6 MS. MIRZAYEVA: My name is Khalida Mirzayeva.

7 THE COURT: How are you related to Mr. Tatar?

8 MS. MIRZAYEVA: I'm Serdar's wife.

9 THE COURT: What would you like to say?

10 MS. MIRZAYEVA: I would like to say that I arrived to 11 America being already a widow. My first husband passed away 12 in 1996. After my first husband passed away, I was alone who 13 was taking care of my son and it was pretty difficult for me 14 to live alone.

15 When I came here as a refugee, I landed in Philadelphia 16 and I met Serdar in 2005. I liked him. He was attentive. He 17 was polite. Hard working. He treated my parents with respect 18 and really loved my child. My boy liked him as his own. And 19 he was the one who asked me to marry him. Tradition of our 20 people do not allow a young man to marry a widow. Moreover, I 21 am five years older than him and I have a child. But he did 22 not consider it to be an obstacle and in April 2005 we became 23 husband and wife according to religious rights and traditions.

24 We both were working. We wanted to live independently.

25 We rented an apartment and there was no woman who was happier

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 than I was. Serdar is a great husband. He is loving. He's 2 caring. He is a real husband at home. We were dreaming about 3 honest good life. We have big plans. He worked a lot and at 4 the same time he wanted to study at Temple University. My 5 husband never made an effort to walk away somewhere or spend 6 time outside his home, he always spent time with us. He 7 really wanted to have a child and I got pregnant. With hope 8 and joy we were facing our future.

9 It all ended abruptly. My husband's arrest became a 10 real tragedy for us. One time we came home we saw that the 11 door was broken down, everything was scattered around the 12 apartment and we found out that it was a search. It was my 13 fourth month of pregnancy. He was arrested right in front of 14 me. When I saw all that, I felt so bad and I almost fell 15 down. After that, I got complications of pregnancy and this 16 horrible stress violated the normal way of pregnancy. Three 17 times I was hospitalized with a threat of miscarriage. That's 18 not considering my moral state. And in spite of all the 19 efforts undertaken by the doctors, my child was born 20 premature. At this time he's 19 months old. My husband saw 21 him only once. And my little baby boy doesn't know where the 22 father is. My older son started studying at school worse than 23 he used to. And the further it goes, the harder it gets for 24 me to raise him alone.

25 What a great helper and what a wonderful father was

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

32

1 Serdar for my older son. And how happy my boy was that he got 2 a father. He had a friend who would play with him, who would 3 teach him how to draw, he followed his progress at school, he 4 responded his questions and he maintained contact with 5 teachers.

6 Serdar's arrest changed everything. I want you to 7 understand if my husband really were a criminal, I would not 8 be standing here and defending him. He's a positive person.
9 He's a very sensitive person. He is a hard worker. He always 10 was compassionate toward the people who found themselves in 11 trouble. And I remember when we watched the TV that showed 12 Virginia events when a student killed other students of that 13 school, Serdar was crying because he felt sorry for those kids 14 and their parents. Serdar had never hurt anybody. And I do 15 not believe that he could commit a crime. That's not because 16 I'm his wife but because I know him as a human being. That 17 cannot be.

18 I believe that everything that is going on is happening
19 in some horrible dream. I cannot believe that I am now alone
20 with two children. Two kids are growing without their father 21 and I would love to raise them good and honest people. That's 22 much harder without having a husband. I cannot convey this to 23 you in plain words. Yes, everybody can make a mistake.
24 Perhaps Serdar made several mistakes. Please forgive him.
25 I'm begging you. I am asking you please be fair towards our

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 family. And I hope that you won't let my children grow
2 without their father. It's a big tragedy for my children. I
3 know that you're going to punish him. Please don't give him 4 too long of a term or don't give him life term and please
5 don't send him away too far. I cannot tolerate all that. I
6 won't be able to live without him. Thank you very much. I 7 have nothing else to say but I am asking you, I'm begging you, 8 please pity us.

9 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

12 13PM 10 MS. MIRZAYEVA: Thank you.

11 MR. SPARACO: The interpreter can be excused, your 12 Honor, I know she has to go to Newark.

13 THE COURT: Ma'am, thanks. Thanks for helping us out 14 today.

12 13PM 15 THE INTERPRETER: Thank you.

16 MR. SPARACO: Serpil Yilmaz, my client's sister.
17 And I have one more after that.

18 THE COURT: Fine. Whatever you want, Mr. Sparaco.
19 That's why we're here.

12 13PM 20 Good afternoon. Would you tell us your name, 21 please?

22 SERPIL YILMAZ: Sure. My name is Serpil Tatar. I'm 23 Mr. Tatar's sister.

24 THE COURT: All right.

12 13PM 25 SERPIL YILMAZ: And before I start I wanted to give

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

34

1 you something, just a couple of things. If you don't mind.

2 THE COURT: Barbara, would you go see what she has 3 please?

4 (Deputy clerk retrieving items for the Court.)

12 14PM 5 THE COURT: Ma'am, you wrote me an eight page 6 letter, correct? Or you wrote an eight page letter -- well, 7 it's actually nine. Did you give it to me?

8 SERPIL YILMAZ: I'm sorry?

12 14PM 9 THE COURT: And I have this letter and I read this 10 letter.

11 SERPIL YILMAZ: I'm glad you did, I hope you got my 12 points. I did have more to say --

13 THE COURT: Oh sure.

12 14PM 14 SERPIL YILMAZ: -- than the letter, but with this 15 going on and on it's not stopping so I just made, you know, 16 main points about my brother.

17 THE COURT: Please continue. And tell me what you 18 can about your brother.

12 14PM 19 SERPIL YILMAZ: We didn't have to come to this 20 country to live, we choose to live, come here and we continue 21 to -- we continue to live this country, including him.

22 He did able to go back, he did have a chance, he did 23 have a chance, but he did not choose to go back. It's not 24 because he hates his country, it's because he likes more than 12 15PM 25 his country here better.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 And as you see on that picture when he was a little 2 kid, he's interest for uniformed people as you see. He 3 doesn't know anything about Fort Dix when he was a five year 4 old kid.

12 15PM 5 Even that time I was a witness, everybody a witness 6 in my family, he's not trying to kill someone when he was 7 five. He was interested in the uniformed people. Because in 8 our family there is couple of people in the very high position 9 in the military, so we know them very close.

12 16PM 10 So he was interested, it start from there, it's 11 not -- it didn't start after he moved here or it didn't start 12 after he saw Fort Dix or he met with Shnewer or anybody. It 13 didn't start anything -- it didn't start that time, it started 14 the way before.

12 16PM 15 I wish I can hold his hand right now, and say 16 everything will be okay, but it will never change whatever he 17 says in this case, I know that. And I know -- I know there is 18 couple of things he said, there's a lot of bugs in this case 19 about only him, you know that.

12 16PM 20 He doesn't even say any jihad words, he doesn't say 21 any as you say thank you for you to remind them, he never say 22 any -- he didn't say anything like I wanted to kill or kill, 23 he didn't use any word like this. And everybody knows who 24 followed this case.

12 17PM 25 I'm not ignoring whatever he said or whatever he

United States District Court

36

1 did, he did make a mistake to say -- to lie to FBI. He knows 2 that, we all know that, but there is again but. It's not to 3 easy to make a decision at that point as you can understand.

12 17PM 4 He choose -- he trusted someone in uniform and he 5 went to the police. There is a way to understand this Omar
6 guy, he was an FBI or not. He can follow him, he can do 7 something else but he choose to go to the police, not because 8 he wanted to find, that's what I believe.

12 18PM 9 He trusted someone with the uniform in this country
10 and he -- he tell every detail about himself. That's why I 11 don't believe, that's why he went to the police because he 12 wanted to find out.

12 18PM 13 I don't want talk too much about this case because 14 there is everybody was talking already, but like Government's 15 lawyer said Shnewer was a liar, so why we believe him whatever 16 he said about my brother. Why we should believe him then.

17 He never say anything from his mouth he is a 18 jihadist, and -- or he wanted to join military because he 19 wants to kill them. You never heard from him, and like 12 18PM 20 everybody -- everybody heard from the Government's lawyer, 21 Shnewer is a liar. And why we trust him about my brother 22 then.

12 19PM 23 So please, when you punish him, just don't accept 24 those things whoever say something about my brother, just 25 what -- I mean I know you're going to punish him, punish him

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 whatever he said then, because there is no chance to go back
2 and clear everything our memory whatever he said.

3 I know he doesn't mean anything to -- like he's 4 going to say probably, and the first day I just want to say, 5 the day before he got arrested we live together on weekend, 6 weekend, it was a Sunday. And I was talking about the getting 7 a cover for my bird for my house. I was mentioning that to 8 him.

9 And he was like shocked because he was like he 10 never heard anything like -- he never -- I never said anything 11 like that before because I wanted to have a bird in a cave in 12 my house. And he was telling me how you going to watch the 13 bird in the cave. And I am so sorry you are in that cave 14 right now; I wish you're not in there, I'm sorry.

15 I'm sorry, but this is true. This is true, I'm not 16 making up this story or the letter, I didn't make any up.
17 Everything was true.

18 Including the 9/11 story, because I was a witness on 19 9/11. I was living in New York, I was take care of the kid
20 and right there very close. And I see everything, I went 21 through with everything, I can feel that pain right now.

22 Because -- because it was hard to watch people 23 suffering, and he knows that too. We all -- our family is not 24 a radical Islamist, as you see, as probably everybody see 25 because the background check for everything.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

38

1 When we -- when I went through with the 9/11 they -- 2 that tragedy, this guy he was accusing as a terrorist, he was 3 crying, not only for me because he -- not only because he was 4 afraid for me to die or anything, he was crying for everybody.

5 I was a witness, I witnessed that and I'm telling 6 you the truth. This guy cannot kill anyone, believe me. Even 7 that he doesn't say that, he wants to kill. I got a lot of 8 things -- I'm sorry.

9 As you see on that picture, he has pictures with 10 military personnel, as you see. He's hating him? No. He 11 doesn't hate him, he gets a picture with him. How come this 12 person get a picture with someone he wants to kill. That's 13 not possible. That's not possible. There is no such a thing 14 like that.

15 And he has a happy face on his face. Everybody can 16 see it if they want it. There is no hatredness, nothing.

17 When Omar guy was talking about Jews or I don't know 18 who opened that conversation, I don't remember now, he was 19 only talking about their business thing, not their religion or 20 not Jewish -- not he hates or any other hatredness, he doesn't 21 say anything like that. He just say it about their business 22 because that's the only thing he was thinking.

23 He doesn't hate no one. He doesn't show any -- this 24 16 months they were listening, he doesn't show any hatredness to 25 anyone. I know he said things, these things, but it's not him

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 what he said.

2 He said about his country, we don't -- we don't do 3 anything with the gun, we do politic, that's what he said, 4 that's him. The other things, what he said, that's not him.

5 But whatever I tell you, that's him, that's a 6 totally different person. Because it's not because I don't 7 know him, it's because that situation at that point make him 8 to say that.

9 I know that's not right, it's not possible to do
10 something for Allah, Allah give you a mind to use and he knows 11 that. You don't do anything. You don't kill anyone for 12 Allah, and he knows that.

13 My other sister wish to be here, but she's out of 14 the country unfortunately. But I mean she couldn't come, but 15 she's going to say the same thing probably, I just have to 16 tell this because that's what she want me to do.

17 I wish everything, it was different. I wish this is 18 just a bad movie we are watching right now. I wish that -- we 19 cannot go back right now, I know that.

20 When we got this restaurant he was excited. We 21 didn't want to come -- me and my husband used to live in New 22 York. And when they open this restaurant we didn't come move 23 to New Jersey, but he make us to move to New Jersey, go that 24 place, to the restaurant, work there as a family.

25 If someone wants to kill someone and right there,

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

40

1 how come he includes all the family in that area. We even 2 bought the house there, we're right next to the base. Can you
3 imagine if something happened to the base? As I mentioned it 4 to you in my letter. Something going to happen to us also.

5 We are right there, that's not possible we get away. He knows 6 that.

7 I don't know you made your decision yet or not, but 8 please make your decision not the other ones said, whatever 9 you make decision, whatever he did -- he did mistakes I know, 10 the map thing, oh my God; he's been working that restaurant 11 for a long time, he could do -- he could get any information 12 if he wanted, but how come this Omar guy show up and then he 13 give it to him.

14 He can do anything he wanted while he was there, but 15 because he didn't want to do it, that's true, he didn't want 16 to do it. He could get those maps before, he could get more 17 information before.

18 We went to inside of the base when the air show was 19 on. There is like millions of people there, we were watching 20 just, you know, like enjoying that day. It was just hot 21 outside that day and we got hot, that's only complaint he has.
22 We went inside together, we watch the airplane show. So he 23 had a chance to do something bad to them, but because he 24 didn't want to do it, that's not him.

25 After Omar guy shows what the map came from, I don't

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 understand. I know there's -- there's a question mark; when 2 you look at the picture it's weird, I know that. But when you 3 look at the other side it's also weird too, because that's not 4 him.

5 I know you. I know you cannot kill anyone.

6 When you give the life sentence, that's it, we all 7 in jail for our whole lives. It's not going to be life for 8 anyone in our family. I wish I can change this. Like I said, 9 I know -- I know he made a mistake, but there's so many things 10 he didn't do in this case.

11 He doesn't have any video, anything. He doesn't 12 even have a computer for those all 16 months. He not even 13 before, because I can give his computer from my father's 14 house, there is no such thing like a video watching, or gun is 15 involved about guns. He's watching a video someone is killing 16 each other, never. And there's no video at all, as 17 Government's lawyer can prove that.

18 He doesn't say anything like he wanted to kill 19 someone. So when you give your sentence, please, I'm not 20 saying forgive him because he did some mistakes, but this is 21 too much what he did, and the punishment is too much. He 22 deserve to be out, believe me.

23 THE COURT: Anything else?

24 SERPIL YILMAZ: One other thing I want to say.

25 THE COURT: Please.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

42

1 SERPIL YILMAZ: In the restaurant we all work so
2 hard. I mean we all said that, but he is the one who wash -- 3 he wash the dishes, whichever the military personnel eat; 4 clean the bathrooms, clean the floor, we all did that and he 5 is the one who did mostly.

6 Who can does this if someone hates someone, do you
7 think he -- they can do this? I mean for me it's not. For me
8 I'm not say -- I'm not proving here he's guilty or not, I'm 9 just saying this to give you a question mark in your head.

10 No one can do this if someone hates them, or wants 11 to kill them. He worked so hard for that restaurant and we 12 grew up so fast, very fast. We got like 300 a day when we 13 start, after that we got like starting 15,000. Or whatever.
14 The money goes up because of him.

15 He was the -- he was the one who's dealing with the 16 military person because they were our customer only. Can 17 someone -- can someone do this when they hate -- when he hates 18 them. I don't know. I mean that's -- that's the thing I 19 cannot understand.

20 I don't know how he put himself in this situation.
21 But this is true, he cannot do anything bad to them. Believe 22 me, if you give him a chance, if you give him a few years and 23 he leave -- I mean he probably he still want to be military 24 personnel, believe me of that. It's not because I think he 25 wanted to kill them.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 No one can kill them, they can't -- no one can kill 2 them if they -- they can't join the military alone, it's not 3 possible to do that I think. It's who's doing that is not 4 from the military, who's doing it from our side as we see on 5 all other countries or other terrorist attacks. They're not 6 military personnel. It's not good idea to join the military 7 personnel to kill them.

8 And as you see, five years old kid, he is -- his 9 son's kid that time, but he did wanted to have a picture with 10 that uniformed people, he was crying for it. And we did send 11 this person whoever is on the picture, we don't even know him, 12 we send him this -- we got his mail in recently with the 13 picture.

14 Please, understand this, he put himself in bad 15 situation, but he is not a dangerous person, not for -- not 16 for military person, not for other person, not for anybody.
17 He is not a dangerous person.

18 As you see in this court he is the only one who's 19 crying. He never shout to you or to anyone in this court.
20 Not even us. As you see we have so much pain, but we never 21 shout, we never say anything bad to people here, or -- or 22 outside.

23 I don't know how my speech will change
24 your decision; even you made the decision already. I really 25 believe he cannot do anything bad to other people.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

44

1 That's all I can. I wish I can say everything I
2 wanted to say, but it's not going to finish.

3 THE COURT: Thank you for coming in. I know how 4 difficult this must be for you. For the whole family.

5 SERPIL YILMAZ: The difficult thing is accused by -- 6 like a terrorist, believe me. It's not like stealing thing, 7 it's not like you're hitting someone you go to jail. In our 8 family, our religion, terrorist we all fight for it in our 9 country, and he knows that.

10 He knows what the terrorist attacks caused people's 11 life, he knows that very very well. From his country, from 12 here, 9/11, he was witness with me, and he got pain from it.

13 And thank you for the opportunity to say something 14 because we would not say in court to you, and thank you for 15 that.

16 THE COURT: Thank you.

17 SERPIL YILMAZ: And I wanted to say to you, I love
18 you.

19 THE DEFENDANT: I love you too.

20 MR. SPARACO: Musa Mirzayev.

21 THE COURT: Good afternoon. What you tell us your 22 name please?

23 MUSA MIRZAYEV: Musa Mirzayev.

24 THE COURT: What would you like to say?

25 MUSA MIRZAYEV: My father died when I was six

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 months, I grew up without a father. When my mom married 2 Serdar I was really happy. Serdar was really kind to me and 3 to my mom.

4 I feel safer with him. I really love him. He 5 helped me with my homework, he taught -- he teach me how to 6 draw, he teach me how to play the football.

7 I cannot believe that he is a criminal. He wanted 8 me to read more to help my mom. We had a good family, what is 9 going to be now.

12 36PM 10 Please return my father to me and to my brother.
11 Thank you.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 MR. SPARACO: That was my last witness, your Honor.
14 My client wishes to speak.

12 36PM 15 THE COURT: Mr. Tatar, you have an absolute right to 16 speak, and you may speak at this time and say whatever you'd 17 like.

18 THE DEFENDANT: I appreciate the opportunity, your 19 Honor.

12 36PM 20 This is the hardest day of my life. That's one of 21 the reasons why I prepared this statement, and also because I 22 know and realize the significance of today.

23 All those who love me, all those who care for me and 24 still believe in me, and also for deliverance that will leave 12 37PM 25 no room for criticism, for any skepticism or any suspicion as

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

46

1 to who I am. And what I believe in.

2 I hope and pray that this may be the one final 3 chance I have to speak and go beyond just the formality.

4 Allow me first, your Honor, to say that I feel 12 37PM 5 absolutely no hatred, no animosity towards anybody who's been 6 involved in this case and has been affiliated with the entire 7 investigation. I absolutely had no hatred for anybody.

8 I wish I can say the same thing about the feelings 9 that people may have toward me. But unfortunately and under 12 38PM 10 these circumstances, and contrary of what Mr. Richard Sparaco 11 told me, I've been -- my personality and who I am has been 12 misconstrued by -- by far my own actions, but by also through 13 other people who are -- just had very limited associations 14 with me.

12 38PM 15 It was a very small peephole that everything has 16 been shown to the entire world as to who I am. I know in the 17 entire world -- sorry. I'm different, I'm not a terrorist.
18 I'm not -- I'm not a killer. I believe in the philosophies -- 19 I'm just going to read; I'm sorry.

12 39PM 20 THE COURT: That's fine, take your time. There is 21 no hurry here.

22 THE DEFENDANT: I don't believe in the philosophies 23 that some people apparently have adopted. I am different, but 24 I do understand the functions of the Government and positions 12 39PM 25 and the different responsibilities that they have. As opposed

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 to the tasks of the defense and others.

2 Through what I have said so far I am in no way 3 trying to disrespect or attack the decisions arrived by the 4 jurors; and the U.S. Attorneys I mean no disrespect, but you 12 39PM 5 got it all wrong.

6 I am truly sorry for all of this happening. I feel 7 that I have to take responsibility for my actions in full, 8 but, your Honor, Mr. Hammer, Mr. Fitzpatrick, I implore that 9 the crime I've been found guilty of is not in any way was my

12 40PM 10 goal, my intention, or the disposition, murdering innocent 11 American soldiers was not what was going through my head when 12 I took those actions and said those things.

13 Again, your Honor, and everyone who's listening, I 14 truly apologize for what I have done, and I take full

12 40PM 15 responsibility of my actions. But what I am not taking 16 responsibility for is being accused of conspiring to murder 17 innocent American soldiers. That I'm not responsible for.

18 Because as your Honor hopefully got a chance to 19 review, and you did tell me that you read it and read it

12 41PM 20 repeatedly, and I thank you for that, it was 23 pages; because 21 in there I explain pretty much why I did what I did, and the 22 things that I said and why I said it, even though it may not 23 sound very believable, it's true.

24 What I really want to say today is about who I am 12 41PM 25 and talk about my actions. Who I am, your Honor, I submit is

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

48

1 what I believe in. Who I am is my family. Who I am is what 2 my dreams were. Who I am is what my vision is for this world 3 and of humanity.

4 My moral standards set firm in doing the right
12 42PM 5 things, and who I am is my virtue and I try so hard to sustain 6 observing the middle course in everything.

7 Today is my third anniversary with my wife. Can I?

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 THE DEFENDANT: Even though these bad circumstances, 12 42PM 10 happy anniversary. I love you. (Addressed to defendant's 11 wife.)

12 I offer my deep regrets, and sorrow for everything 13 you all go through all of this pain. All of you, I love all 14 of you.

12 42PM 15 I got married to my loving wife three years ago
16 today, and my life was -- prior to my marriage was like a 17 roller coaster. I just set my feet on solid ground after I 18 got married. I learned what responsibilities were, really 19 mean, really meant when I got married. And I just started 12 43PM 20 living the dream that I was planning for all my family.

21 The detailed statement I'm about to submit to this 22 Honorable Court has been expressed to many persons prior to 23 this and before my arrest as individualized opinions. These 24 opinions are the philosophies I believe in, and when I express 12 43PM 25 to them to the people who are dull and ignorant, it was looked

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 at as impossibilities because of the only constant 2 observations of my external sight, and were simply because 3 their own interests in dispositions.

4 I am sure that the expression damned if you do and 5 damned if you don't, is a very familiar one to everyone here.
6 I command, your Honor, no good lawyer means any bush in any 7 and every applicable way.

8 Today I announce with the leave of your Honor, to 9 everyone who is listening, especially yourself, Mr.

10 Fitzpatrick and Mr. Hammer, to the respective President of the 11 United States, Barack Obama and to the whole world, including 12 the leaders of my country, I disclaim, denounce and disown any 13 belief that teaches, uses or implicates violence in any 14 situation or form to establish any good.

15 What I believe is violence is a last resort over 16 incompetence, and I don't believe anyone here would argue 17 contrary to my comments.

18 Further, I submit that I'm not a killer. And to my 19 surprise everyone already said that, and I did this just 20 yesterday, stayed up all night, only slept two hours.

21 I'm not an extremist, not even close to being a 22 radical, nothing was provided really in my belief, to 23 constitute any attributions to me as a terrorist.

24 I'm a patriot, I love my country. I love America.

25 And so far there's only one American that I really love, and

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

50

1 that's my son, Jama (ph) he's not here today.

2 I consider myself to be an American despite the 3 technicalities and I always will be. I truly value the 4 direction that I believe and understand this country and it's 5 citizens are aiming for. I'm with you 100 percent America.
6 I'm not a terrorist.

7 No matter the shortcomings and mistakes of our 8 leaders, and the ignorant, I'm with you, in keeping safe our 9 freedom and liberties. I'm hit with the belief of fighting 10 for the greater good of the people.

11 This country and any who loves in it are not my 12 enemies, as the Government wants all to believe that I am.
13 This Government doesn't know me; you guys don't know me, you 14 guys don't know who I am (directed at U.S. Attorneys).

15 And I'm here to tell you that I am not a terrorist,
16 again. I believe in diplomacy, and I am not a jihadist. I 17 believe in the judicial system set to litigate and educate, 18 and make change and make a difference. I am not part of the 19 problem, I promise I will, I am, and I will continue to be 20 part of the solution.

21 I made a huge mistake and I lied to the FIB agents, 22 I admitted that the first day I met with my attorney. I lied 23 twice because it was the same person who interviewed me in the 24 first place, who then wanted the information I was trying to 25 give him.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 Excuse me.

2 The huge mistake I made was to lie to the FBI about 3 giving the map. And I'm really sorry for doing, for all that 4 I'm going through and all that everyone is going through, I'm 5 very sorry. That this is all happening just because my 6 stupid-ass lie about a freaking map.

7 But I do reflect that on the day Mr. Brennan and Mr.
8 Rycek interviewed me, I told them both that I would do
9 anything to stop what I thought was really going to be a 10 terrorist attack. I reported the whole incident as to the 11 best of my abilities and my memory.

12 My interview with two agents are not fully reflected 13 on documents. The information I gave them were not put there.
14 I gave the telephone number of Mohamad Shnewer to the FBI 15 agents, as I wrote to you in the letter. I don't know why 16 it's not there.

17 In my interview -- I'm sorry. I was afraid and 18 that's why I lied. I was almost going to shit myself; excuse 19 my language. I was scared of exactly what's going on today, 20 exactly what I'm going through today. This is what I was 21 afraid of.

22 Ever since 9/11 happened a lot of the Muslims that 23 lives in this country has went through great duress, and under 24 -- have been under great pressure, just -- just to observe 25 basically part of their religion. And doing -- you know,

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

52

1 attending Friday prayers and so on.

2 People are afraid to be blamed for what other people
3 committed. This is what's happening today. I tried to change
4 that view, and that was one of my goals; I wanted to change
5 that view of the people that there is a collateral fight 6 against terrorism, and I wanted to be part of it.

7 I wanted to show not just the -- not to be a 8 celebrity, not to be just somebody just to make a big show of 9 it, but to show that, you know, Muslims care too and we're 10 human beings that value life.

11 I don't mean in any way to disrespect the decisions 12 that the jury arrived at, but I contend and beg with all the 13 humility and deep anguish, those actions I took and the things 14 that I said were not done in -- with any malice in my heart or 15 mind.

16 I did what I did and the things that I said were 17 done in complete utter ignorance of what was really going on.
18 I had no idea what Shnewer was doing and saying to Mr. Omar.
19 I had no idea about those gun purchases, about what they were 20 saying about me. That I don't even remember saying it. Or 21 being apart of it.

22 I don't know why people observed me the way they 23 observed me, the way they thought I was, but I'm not that 24 person who they thought. I wish I could just show it and 25 prove it, but other than words I have nothing else to submit

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 here.

2 I was trying to help stop what I -- what could have 3 been in my mind the next 9/11 attacks. But that was not the 4 only thought I had. I thought that I might be getting set up.
5 Because of the two gun purchases that I make that Mr.
6 Fitzpatrick mentioned, that I purchased in order for Dukas and 7 Shnewer to use, I did not purchase them solely for the fact 8 for them to use those guns.

9 I went to the shooting ranges in Fort Dix and shot 10 with -- shot guns with those U.S. soldiers that you claim that 11 I wanted to kill, together side by side, in those ranges.

12 I went to hunting ranges, hunting clubs, I wanted to 13 buy a hunting license so I could go hunting with this worker 14 that I had; I didn't want to mention his name because he 15 didn't really want to be part of this. My attorney knows who 16 it is.

17 I just enjoy guns. I mean I wanted to be a police 18 officer and I wanted to be a military personnel, what more 19 clear explanation can I give more than that. I love gadgets.

20 The problem with the gun purchase that I made was 21 clear, that, you know, I think it's out there; I falsified my 22 citizenship of the United States on the application.

23 And prior to doing that I went to another gun store
24 and filled out the complete application and put my A number 25 and all of the information, which is not a lie.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

54

1 And the person told me that he didn't want to sell
2 me the gun and I had to get permission from the attorney
3 general, and he wouldn't sell it to me. And I didn't know I 4 had to really buy it with the green card, so I figured I'd 5 just put citizenship.

6 And it worked, they sold me a gun because I put 7 citizen there. It just went through. I'm really sorry for 8 that. But what I did afterwards and when I realized the 9 mistake that I made, I -- I thought first to take those two 10 guns to a police station and just return it to them and tell 11 them what I did.

12 But I was told that I was going to be there -- I'd 13 probably get arrested and get deported. I had just gotten 14 married at that time and I didn't want none of that to happen.

15 And then I took it to a gun store and tried to sell 16 it, and they told me it was going to be -- they'd give me $300
17 only, and I spend like 6, $700 for those two guns; I didn't 18 want to just give it away.

19 And then I thought and I found the responsible 20 person who already had a gun license and a gun, and had a 21 citizenship, who had -- you know, be able -- had they been 22 able to hold onto those guns, so I transferred it to him 23 legally, and you know hoped for the best basically after that.

24 But I didn't even know that the person was related 25 in any way, shape or form with, you know, Mr. Shnewer's

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 family. I had no idea.

2 Getting back as to what I had done and said to the 3 cooperating witness. I truly believe I was doing the right
4 thing by acting what I thought a potential terrorist suspect 5 would have expected me to act like and say the things that he 6 would expect me to say. I said those things and did the 7 things that I did because that's what I thought a terrorist 8 would want to hear. And also because I wanted to get more 9 information. And I kept asking him what are you trying to do.

10 What are you guys trying to tell me, at least tell me. I 11 repeatedly tried to ask so I could get more information and 12 then he finally told me get me the map and I'll tell you in 13 two weeks. Even at that moment I didn't want to do it. And I
14 said to him no, just use my head. I know everything. Tell

15 me. Tell me so I could tell you. But it didn't work. And 16 that night I, I was going through -- I had a tornado going 17 through my mind. I had a million thoughts. I had to do 18 something that the FBI didn't show up, it was three weeks 19 then. I've been going back and forth and every day I spoke 20 to, almost ever he day I spoke to Mr. Dandridge. He asked me, 21 you know and I showed him the record that I made. I recorded 22 Mr. Omar on his conversation when he was asking my about the 23 maps. And I gave that recording to Mr. Reishack and Mr.
24 Brennan, they both listened to it. Mr. Brennan then told me 25 not to lose the recording. And I'll explain that --the

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

56

1 recording doesn't exist right now because one day on my way
2 back from work, I'm sorry -- but my wife is a pretty jealous
3 female and I love her for whatever she is. That doesn't 4 matter to me. I worked at the Temple University where there 5 are a lot of females and pretty ones, as a matter of fact.

6 And I'm a pretty social guy and I speak with everyone, you
7 know, and I'm pretty friendly. But on my way back from work
8 she thought I was cheating on her at the time. There was a 9 car accident on 295 that was flipped over and I already knew 10 what I was going go through when I got home about, you know,

11 who have you been with and lots of stuff like that. So I 12 wanted to record the traffic and the accident so I could show 13 it to my wife that look this is what happened and this is why 14 I'm late. And I looked at the recording that I had on my 15 telephone and it's been like two months or three months, 16 nothing happened. I waited. I waited for the FBI to come 17 back and talk to me again. I could have contacted them 18 myself. I don't know why I didn't do it. I was really 19 afraid. I didn't want anything to do with it after that 20 interview. I said you know what, you know nothing is going 21 on. I don't know. I just erased it. And I recorded the 22 conversation -- I mean recorded the video of the car accident

23 so I could show it to my wife. I wish I had that recording so 24 I could have shown to it the jury on that day. That I 25 actually had the recording. I tried to do it four times

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 actually. You know every time I asked him like what are you
 2 guys trying to do. I would hit the recording button and he 3 just throw off the conversation and I just hit if off. I was 4 trying to do my best. I was really trying to do my best,
 5 trying to get as much information as possible. I did fear
 6 that I could have been part of something or somebody after me
 7 but because of that gun, that's the only reason why I thought 8 they were after me because of those guns that I purchased on 9 lying about the citizenship. When Omar told me I want to make 10 them pay what they do to me. I was shocked when Mr.
 11 Fitzpatrick read the transcript. It didn't sound like exactly 12 what really sound like. I, I was in shock not because as Mr.
 13 Hammer had once, but because I was -- I wasn't sure why he 14 knew or about that he knew of something.

01 00PM 15 I'll just continue. I have been completely consistent 16 and honest with my attorney here ever since the beginning.
 17 Because I learned what lies can do to someone. I had no 18 excuse for lying even though I felt I was being set up. And 19 at the time the interview I was under great duress. On the 01 01PM 20 day of my arraignment, advised by one of the FBI agents I 21 don't know who, that truth would set me free. And I adopted 22 that advice and I know where that's from and I never lied from 23 that day on. I'm -- I admit to my huge mistake that, that I 24 made and I wish only that I could show how sorry I am for 01 02PM 25 doing it. Your Honor, I strongly believe and learned in

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

58

1 honesty and integrity thoughts and deeds is a great virtue. I
 2 am an independent thinker with interest in logic. I am far 3 from being the type of person who can be easily manipulated or 4 be simply inspired by some videos or lecture or some 01 02PM 5 lethoritical (sic) propaganda. I can't understand why because 6 they don't know me. My brain capacity is not the size of an 7 ameba. I'm not an idiot. I'm sorry. Maybe I'm calling 8 someone else one, but I certainly am not. I believe that 9 unless a person has a severe mental problem or in a state of 01 02PM 10 duress or out of ignorance one cannot deliberately or 11 maliciously perform an action that they know to be wrong. The 12 person who understands an action to be wrong, therefore, in 13 his intellectual morality cannot and will not deliberately and 14 maliciously be in agreement with any such propositions. I 01 03PM 15 like to use the analogy to compare to my situation, Your 16 Honor. I know that there was some sort of an act going on 17 that was wrong, and I knew it was wrong. So, when I did 18 commit those actions, I submit that I didn't commit them with 19 malice or with vulgarity. I know that, I know that there was 01 03PM 20 some -- I'm sorry. My thought, I was -- in my thought I was 21 being from what I now think being Pinkerton, doing my own
 22 investigations and giving the map, from giving the map was I 23 contend not malice or in my mind wrong because I believed 24 that's what the law enforcement would have done if I was 01 04PM 25 actually the informant of the Government. I understand and

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 believe in the concept of the theory that good men is the 2 canon and measure of excellent. It is the task of the 3 Government to ensure that the actions that citizens 4 accommodate their lives to their canon as closely as their 01 04PM 5 inner capacities and external pressures that the law can 6 deter. I was trying to accommodate to that canon and I plead 7 to Your Honor my actions were not done in malice, but were 8 taken under great pressures in the state of duress and only 9 with good intentions. I tried to act as rationally as 01 05PM 10 possible as far as I could possibly have acted. To all reason 11 and notion disappeared completely overtaken all my fears that 12 day when I got interviewed. The information that I provided, 13 again I said this before, was not taken and it was the same 14 information that they asked me for. They were asking me for 01 05PM 15 information and they were disinterested in. I was indeed just 16 -- they were glancing contradicting looks at each other when 17 they were doing what they did. What would anyone have done 18 and thought if they were in my position. I ask Your Honor if 19 you would contemplate and put yourself in my shoes and 01 06PM 20 everyone. What would you have done if you were exposed to so 21 something, what you would have thought would have been the 22 next 9/11 attacks and especially if you were exposed and the 23 person that was interested in law enforcement. What would you 24 have done. I tried to discourage and I was trying to 01 06PM 25 investigate to stop this fear of any external pressure by my

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

60

1 own self not getting paid a dime, I volunteered myself to take 2 up the task. I thought that I could be killed. I thought 3 that I was risking my family's life. I thought about being 4 set up. I just ask put yourselves in my shoes. I could not 01 07PM 5 let another 911 attack take place and let those suffer who has 6 no responsibilities for. I could not live with myself if I 7 did not do anything to stop what I was exposed to. How could 8 anyone have. How could I not do anything and watch millions 9 of people suffer, not responsible -- suffer the consequences
 01 07PM 10 again and watch them suffer for actions that they did not do.
 11 I have always hated the fact that how the terrorists just do 12 things and watch everyone suffer the consequences of their 13 actions. That's why I hate every one of those people who the 14 Government alleges that I was inspired by. I hate them. And 01 08PM 15 me being one of them is impossible. I am against it 16 1000 percent. I am one of those who has suffered those 17 consequences and actions taken by others. I wish I could turn 18 this all back and have a chance to pay it all back those 19 millions of dollars that was spent while children are starving
 01 08PM 20 to death. People are suffering not being able to put any gas 21 in their tanks or put food on their table. I wish I could pay 22 that money back. I was in the thought that I was doing the 23 right thing and I ended up screwing it up for everybody. My 24 family didn't deserve nothing that I had been going through.
 01 09PM 25 My family didn't deserve -- I'm sorry. My family didn't

*United States District Court
 Camden, New Jersey*

1 deserve nothing that they had been going through. The world
2 to them with my father losing his business and his house, 3 worked so hard to build. I'm sorry I'm messing up.

4 THE COURT: Take your time.

5 THE DEFENDANT: Nothing makes extension to me, Your 6 Honor. All of you respect the fellow Americans. Soldiers in 7 the back. Everyone. I was exposed to what I thought again 8 was to be another 9/11 attack. I thought the guy who the 9 informant is, the guy who I recorded on me cell phone was 01 10PM 10 Al-Qaeda or something because I asked him whether or not if he 11 was connected overseas, and he said yeah. And that was the 12 conversation that I recorded also. That was the reason why I 13 started saying, oh, so you can take me overseas. You have 14 connections. That was the reason, not because I wanted to 01 10PM 15 leave the country. Put yourself in my shoes, Your Honor, 16 please. If one was exposed to such a huge possibility of a 17 terrorist attack especially the person exposed is again

18 interested in law enforcement, what would he have done. I
19 thought that I had the big game. I thought I hit the 12 01 11PM 20 pointer buck. I thought I might be getting set up again, but 21 I could not let the thought count me out of it. I cannot let 22 the thought of being set up, count me out of it. What if it 23 wasn't a set up and what if it was real. I couldn't live with 24 myself.

01 11PM 25 Your Honor, I wrote whole bunch of more. I could

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

62

1 probably go on forever, but I'll just go to my last page and 2 finish there.

3 Your Honor, this is especially for you. I have always 4 tried to be with utmost respect to you and the station you 01 11PM 5 have been trusted. I have called you Your Honor not because 6 that's what a judge should be called. Excuse me. Not because 7 that's what everybody else calls you, but because you must 8 really be an honorable person a man to possess the rank of 9 being a judge. You must really be an honorable man that never 01 12PM 10 sways to any access or deficiency but who one who always tries 11 to have choose the median and stay clear of either extremes
12 that come with every virtue. Choosing courage over 13 crowdedness and rational. These choosing temperedness over -- 14 I don't know how to pronounce the word. I got this from a 01 12PM 15 book called "Aristotle Ethics" lisenless -- don't know how to 16 pronounce and sensibility. Choosing magnificence vulgarity
17 and pettiness and on and on. I respect Your Honor's decision 18 no matter what may be because I know I did something wrong.
19 Even though that wrong is not what I got found guilty for. I 01 13PM 20 throw myself at the mercy of your court. I throw myself at 21 your mercy, Your Honor. And I finish with: The man is best 22 who sees the truth himself. Good too is he who is listens to 23 wise counsel, but who is neither wise himself nor willing to 1 MR. SPARACO: Nothing further, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Take a five minute break, ladies and 3 gentlemen I'll be back in five minutes with any decision in 4 this matter. Thank you.

7 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: All rise.

8 THE COURT: Please have a seat everyone. Okay. I 9 made the rulings on the Guidelines and the applications by 01 24PM 10 defense counsel for variances. So now as the law requires 11 we'll turn to the 3553 factors.

12 The first is the nature and circumstance of the 13 offense, and history and characteristics of the offender. I 14 do adopt the findings of the Probation Department and the 01 24PM 15 pre-sentence investigation report. I do find they're 16 adequately supported by the evidence in this case.

17 Let's talk about Mr. Tatar. I do appreciate his family 18 speaking. I hope his mother is feeling better. He has no 19 prior arrests, was born in Turkey. It's not necessary to get 01 25PM 20 into detail but it was difficult situation as a child.

21 Difficult family situation at times. But ultimately he ended
22 up in the United States, and he went to Cherry High School
23 where he had a difficult time again because of the language 24 barrier, and he dropped out of school but ultimately got his 01 25PM 25 GED. Got married, has a child and is caring for his

1 step-child. Tried a number of times to become a police 2 officer. He tried to join the military. There's some mental 3 health issues. Good employment record. A very devoted family 4 man. An interesting letter from his sister about their 01 25PM 5 religious beliefs. And that sect of Muslim belief that he 6 apparently ascribes to which is different and it's one that I
7 was unaware of. He did receive a certificate for a security 8 guard course. I read his letter many times. I heard what he 9 said today about what he says he was doing. For list sister 01 26PM 10 his parents eloquently tell me that he's not a killer.

11 When we turn to the nature of the offense, the picture
12 is not so good. We all know by now he provided the map and it 13 was his idea. He knew that it was going to cause problems.
14 He knew he was in trouble when he did that. I'm getting 01 26PM 15 involved in it. This is very big, you know. He brought up 16 the idea of the power plant. I'm in honestly, I'm in. Yes, 17 it's a good thing to do. Doesn't matter to me whether I get 18 locked up. Whether I die, it don't matter. I'm doing it in 19 the name of Allah. Listen to the recording. It says the 01 27PM 20 Muslims are waking up. We must prepare as soldiers. Dritan 21 says that he wanted to join the military to kill from the 22 inside. He did dry to join the military. Shnewer says that 23 Tatar is ready for Jihad. First among us. He's first among 24 us. Shnewer chose Fort Dix because Tatar knows it like the 01 27PM 25 palm of his hand. Bought some guns. Lied to the police.

*United States District Court
Camden, New Jersey*

1 Lied to the FBI. On the other hand, as we've all
 2 acknowledged, he was not in the Poconos in the first trip. No
 3 evidence he ever owned or viewed the videos. No evidence he 4 spoke to anyone about these particular machine guns. When his 5 home was searched, some nine millimeter ammunition was found 6 as was a rifle scope. Some ear protection and goggles. He 7 was never charged with a weapons offense. There's no evidence
 8 he was involved in any surveillance. The government argues 9 that the reason for the difference in quantum of evidence 10 simply because he was not as close to Omar or Bakalli as the 11 other defendants. And I'm realistic enough to know as I 12 mentioned yesterday and that much went on here in this 13 conspiracy that we never heard anything about because there 14 was no opportunity to tape record it. And I don't say that 15 because I think they're guilty for things that I imagine may 16 have happened. It's just that when a lawyer argues that the 17 importance of the absence of some evidence, I sort of take 18 that with a grain of salt.

19 The need for the sentence imposed to reflect the 20 seriousness of the offense, promote respect for the law, 21 provide just punishment for this offense. It is, as I said, 22 the most serious offense that I'm aware of in the Guidelines.
 23 Does Mr. Tatar respect the law? Well, he didn't. And he 24 continued to disrespect the law when he lied to the agents.
 25 Deterrence. Very serious crime. Deterrence is absolutely

1 necessary. General and specific. Protect the public from 2 further crimes of the defendant. I'm not so sure that that 3 turns out the same way it did with the other defendants. The 4 other defendants had a much greater sense that they were an 5 immediate and eminent danger to public. Based on what Mr.
 6 Tatar said here, that we know about, I could conclude that's 7 true here also.

8 I reviewed the kind of sentences available. I've 9 talked endlessly about the Guidelines. Sentence disparity is 10 not really a factor, and restitution will be ordered for the 11 reasons that has been ordered from the other cases. The 12 government argues for a life sentence. There are significant 13 reasons why they are correct, and the life sentence is called 14 for in this case. But that's not the end of the analysis. I 15 thought long and hard about Mr. Tatar in this case. The 16 Constitution and the laws of the United States give me the 17 power to impose a sentence of life. Simply affixing my 18 signature to a judgment of conviction condemns this man to 19 spend the rest of his life in prison. I have the power to 20 dictate what he does every day for the rest of his life.

21 Enormous power. But with that comes tremendous 22 responsibility. Responsibility to make sure I get it right.
 23 Because I don't have the ability, none of us has as judges 24 have the ability to review our sentence in five years, 25 10 years, 20 years, 30 years. We have to get it right, now.

United States District Court

Camden, New Jersey

1 During and after this trial I always got the sense that Mr.
 2 Tatar was in a different category than the others. And we've 3 talked about that today. The quantum of evidence is different 4 and it may be as the government says. There just wasn't the 5 connection there just wasn't the connection that the other 6 defendants had. But it was always something more to me and I
 7 couldn't put my finger on it. And I read, and I reread, and I 8 reread the Presentence Report and Mr. Sparaco's brief and the 9 letters and I read the Government's brief again and again and 10 I reviewed the evidence and I too stayed up most of the night
 11 thinking about this and thinking about what I'm going to say.
 12 And I finally put my finger on it. And what was said here 13 today confirmed it. I asked the government the question, what 14 motivated this man. And it's the Government position its 15 religious fervor. And indeed he does say it, I'm doing it in 16 the name of Allah. But that's all he ever really says.
 17 That's the only time he ever invokes the name of the Lord.
 18 The only time he ever invokes a religious reason for doing any 19 of this. And I'm not impressed with it. I know a lot of 20 people who invoke the name of their God. Very religious 21 people, and I come away with this, simply not convinced by a 22 preponderance of the evidence that he was driven to do this by 23 any ideology of hatred or any religious fervor. I am 24 absolutely convinced that he was going through with this, he 25 was going to help this, he would do what he can do and to make

1 this happen. That they were going do kill American soldiers
 2 merely because of the status. But what drove him was not what 3 drove the other four defendants in this case. And that makes 4 a difference. It makes a big difference. Because he's the 5 only one of these defendants who I have any hope of 6 rehabilitating through a prison sentence. The others are so 7 consumed with hatred and their ideology of theirs that they're 8 never going to change. I'm not convinced the same is true of 9 Mr. Tatar.

10 Accordingly, I am not going to give him a sentence of 11 life imprisonment. He's going to be punished severely for his 12 actions and his desires and what he did that led up to his 13 arrest.

14 Therefore, pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 15 1984 it's the judgment of this court, that the defendant, 16 Serdar Tatar, is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau 17 of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 396 months. The 18 math is 33 years. Upon release from imprisonment, the 19 defendant shall being placed on supervised release for a term 20 of the rest of his life. Within 72 hours of release from the 21 custody of the Bureau of Prisons, he shall report in person to 22 the probation office in the district in which he is released.
 23 While on release he shall not commit any other Federal, State 24 or Local crime. He's prohibited from possessing any firearms
 25 or other dangerous device. He shall not possess any illegal

1 controlled substance and shall comply with the other standard
 2 conditions that have been adopted by this court. I excuse him
 3 from the mandatory drug testing provision. There's no 4 evidence whatsoever he has any drug or alcohol problem.
 5 However, if Probation during the course of his supervised 6 release feels that he may have a problem, they do have the 7 authority to subject him to drug testing. He shall cooperate 8 with Immigration and Customs Enforcement to resolve any 9 problems with his status in the United States. He shall 10 provide truthful information and abide by the rules and 11 regulations of Immigration and Customs Enforcement. If 12 deported, he shall not re-enter the United States without the 13 written permission of the Attorney General. If he does 14 re-enter the United States, he must report in person to the 15 nearest U. S. Probation Office within 48 hours. He shall 16 cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by Probation.
 17 For the reasons the other defendants I do find the restitution 18 obligation of a hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars is 19 appropriate. I will waive interest on that. Payments must be 20 paid to the U. S. Treasury forwarded to the Clerk of the Court 21 for distribution to the Department of the Army like the 22 others. His restitution obligation is not affected by any 23 restitution payments made by other defendants in the case, 24 except that no further payments shall be required after the 25 entire amount has been paid by all the defendants.

1 Restitution is due immediately. I recommend he participate
 2 the Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, and pay the sum 3 of $25 every three months. If he has not or if the 4 restitution obligation has not been paid at the time of his 5 release, he shall begin monthly payments of no less than $500
 6 starting 30 days after release. He must provide the U. S.
 7 Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records
 8 including yearly income tax returns upon the request of U. S.
 9 Probation. He shall cooperate with the probation officer in 10 the investigation of his financial dealings and provide 11 truthful monthly statements of his income. He cannot open any 12 new credit charges or additional lines of credit without 13 approval of Probation unless he's in compliance with a payment

 15 assets unless it's in direct service of the restitution
 16 obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court.
 17 He does not have the ability to pay a fine. I waive a fine in 18 this matter. I am going to require that he submit to mental
